News briefs

Mrs. Louise Beaudoin has been named Quebec's Agent General in France, replacing Yves Michaud whose five-year term has expired. Until now, Mrs. Beaudoin has held the position of director of French Affairs in the Quebec Ministry of Intergovernmental Affairs.

The Export Development Corporation (EDC) has signed a $10-million (US) line of credit agreement with First Canadian Financial Services (UK) Ltd. of Britain, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank of Montreal, to support sales of Canadian capital goods and services in 25 countries of Western Europe. The agreement will assist Canadian exporters competing for sales in Western Europe by providing their buyers with a simple and easily accessible credit facility through the bank.

Craig Clow of Montreal, displaying the form which netted him the world aerial ski title in 1982, posted a victory over fellow Quebecker Roch Otis in a World Cup aerial event held recently in Ravaschetto, Italy. The 17-year-old Clow executed a double twisting, double somersault, and then a double somersault with a single twist in the first rotation and a double twist in the second rotation.
