rld-wide y relie

out dis by way a bette

he con

ations similar

nothers

aracter Council

ar day

n Day

a, shall

ance of

peal.

United

decide ons of

ves of

cuting whose

whose

shall of the

shall g the

the o the

ance

: the onal

<sup>c</sup>. The National Council may accept not only monetary contributions but also may accept, after consultation with the Secretary-General, such non-monetary and accept, after consultation with the section of the assets as the National uncil may deem suitable.

butions. The National Council shaly anorran to the Secretary-General at reiniervals detailed financial reports respective its operations and the operation

Custody of Contributions

a. The National Council shall place all monetary contributions in special accounts under its name. These special accounts shall be maintained in deposibries selected by the National Council in consultation with the Government of Canada. Funds shall be withdrawn or transferred from these special accounts in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

b. The National Council shall safeguard and conserve all non-monetary Intributions by taking all needful action, including insuring, storing and trans-Thing such non-monetary contributions. In the case of supplies or other assets hose kind or condition requires early distribution, the National Council shall unsult immediately with the Secretary-General to ensure their immediate dishbution and, as far as possible, the implementation of Article VI of this Agreement.

<sup>c.</sup> The National Council shall indemnify and hold the United Nations and <sup>be</sup> Secretary-General and their or his employees and agents harmless from any arising out of the operations of the National Council under this Agreement. The National Council shall take out adequate insurance according to the laws <sup>of Canada</sup> or other similar protection against the risks referred to in this Wb-paragraph.

ARTICLE VI

Dispositions of Contributions

the administrative and other costs permitted under Article VII (c), shall be transformed and the costs permitted under Article VII (c), shall be a. The contributions received by the National Council, after deduction of ransferred to the Canadian Commercial Corporation as agent for the Interational Children's Emergency Fund for the purchase in Canada of relief supplies, and incidental services as determined by the International Children's Snergency Fund, provided that the National Council in consultation with the Accretary-General of the United Nations may transfer a portion of the net proceeds in Canada to an agreed agency for the purchase in Canada of relief upplies, goods and incidental services in accordance with the purposes stated in Article II (a) of this Agreement.

b. No contributions shall be disposed of by the National Council save in  $a_{cc_0rdance}$  No contributions shall be disposed of the di ARTICLE VII or the National Council for the

Costs of Operation

 $b_{e}$  charged against the contributions collected by the National Council. As soon as feasible against the contributions collected by the National Council. As soon <sup>as</sup> feasible, the National Council shall prepare a budget of its projected expendi-bures which the National Council shall prepare a budget of his information. <sup>teasible</sup>, the National Council shall prepare a budget of its projectormation. <sup>burgs</sup> which shall be transmitted to the Secretary-General for his information.

b. The aid furnished to the National Council and the activity in its behalf ormed haid furnished to the National Council and the activity (b) of this performed by the Secretary-General in accordance with Article IV (b) of this Agreement of the United Nations. Agreement shall be at the cost of the United Nations.

<sup>whatsoever</sup> kind or description, incurred in the conduct of the Appeal by the National Council. c. All other costs, including all obligations, claims or other expenses of the Appeal by the National Council shall be assumed by the National Council.