ARTICLE V

Each Contracting Party shall afford the benefit of its laws and regulations regarding drawbacks of duties payable on goods imported into its territory from the territory of the other Contracting Party for subsequent re-export to a third country, with or without further processing, under industrial and technical cooperation ventures entered into pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

Performance of rights and obligations arising out of contracts and commercial, economic and industrial cooperation arrangements entered into between organizations and enterprises of the Contracting Parties shall be the responsibility of such organizations and enterprises only.

ARTICLE VII

1. A Mixed Commission on economic and trade relations including industrial cooperation will be established. The Commission will consist of representatives designated by the respective Governments.

2. The Mixed Commission shall have the following tasks:

- (a) to review the implementation of this Agreement, and consider measures which might be taken with a view to fulfilling its provisions;
- (b) to review the development of trade relations between the two countries;
- (c) to explore the possibilities of increasing and diversifying trade and economic relations including industrial cooperation on the basis of mutual benefit, and to identify new areas for such cooperation;
- (d) to consider proposals for a continuing and substantial increase in trade between the two countries;
- (e) to consult concerning problems which may arise in the course of the development of economic and trade relations including industrial cooperation between the two countries.

3. The Mixed Commission may submit to the Contracting Parties reports relating to the above-mentioned matters.

4. The Mixed Commission shall ordinarily meet once a year alternately in Canada and Poland.
