

authorities of the two Parties for the reimbursement of certain types of expenses.

4. Unless disclosure is required under the laws of a Party, any information about an individual which is transmitted in accordance with this Convention to one Party by the other Party is confidential and shall be used only for purposes of implementing this Convention and the legislation to which this Convention applies and for no other purpose.

Article XIV

1. An administrative arrangement, agreed to by the competent authorities of the two Parties, shall set out, as required, the conditions under which this Convention shall be implemented.
2. The liaison agencies of the Parties shall be designated in that arrangement.

Article XV

1. Any exemption from or reduction of taxes, legal dues, registration charges or administrative fees for which provision is made in the legislation of one Party in connection with the issuing of any certificate or document required to be produced for the application of that legislation shall be extended to certificates or documents required to be produced for the application of the legislation of the other Party.
2. Any acts or documents of an official nature required to be produced for the application of this Convention shall be exempt from any authentication by diplomatic or consular authorities and similar formality.

Article XVI

For the application of this Convention, the competent authorities and institutions of the two Parties may communicate directly with one another in any of the official languages of either Party.

Article XVII

1. Any claim, notice or appeal concerning the determination or payment of a benefit under the legislation of one Party which should, for the purposes of that legislation, have been presented within a prescribed period to a competent authority or institution or to a tribunal of that Party, but which is presented within the same period to a competent authority or institution or to a tribunal of the other Party, shall be deemed to have been presented to the authority, institution or tribunal of the first Party.