

Business of the House

62, the Canadian Film Development Corporation resolution; then order No. 73, The Canadian Dairy Commission resolution, and a resolution not yet appearing, the Crop Insurance Act resolution.

On Tuesday, it is proposed to continue with order No. 45, the Canada Assistance Plan resolution, followed by, order No. 66 second reading of the bill respecting the Health Resources Fund; followed by the public utilities transfer tax resolution, No. 49 on the order paper. If we complete all that, perhaps some of the items of business left over from Monday will be taken.

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
