Rule 51.

Sitting of Committee.

61. No Committee on any Private Bill, originating in the Senate, of which notice is required to be given, is to consider the same until after one week's notice of the sitting of such Committee has been first affixed in the lobby; nor, in the case of any such Bill originating in the House of Commons, until after twenty-four hours like notice.

Private Bill Register.

62. A Book, to be called the "Private Bill Register," shall be kept, in which Book shall be entered by a Clerk appointed by the Clerk of the Senate, for the business of that office, the name, description and place of residence of the parties applying for the Bill, or of their agent, and all the proceedings thereon, from the Petition to the passing of the Bill; such entry to specify briefly each proceeding in the Senate, or in any committee to which the Bill or Petition may be referred, and the day on which the Committee is appointed to sit. Such book to be open to public inspection, daily during office hours.

Private Bill Committees.

63. The Clerk shall cause lists of all Private Bills and petitions for such Bills upon which any Committee is appointed to sit, specifying the time of the meeting, and the room where the Committee shall sit, to be pre-
