

Page. Article.

- 12 26. — Give your wife a $30,000.00 dowry out of what you owe your creditors; or make provision for the future by a $25,000.00 life insurance, and pay the premium before you pay your current debts.
- 12 27. — Treat the teacher and your child will be singled out for a prize, or an address to Their Excellencies.
- 13 28. — Expansive boodling: $33\frac{1}{3}$ percent of a swelling in the sand from the Louise dock's \$500,000.
- 13 29. — Boodling by notarial agreement: $22,000.00 swollen to $97,000.00, reduced by arbitrators to $17,000.00.
- 14 30. — Very much like paying a percentage to rob the government, but when done openly excites no suspicion.
- 14 31. — Changing minus into plus without the help of algebra.
- 15 32. — How to word a claim to render it acceptable. The torturing of a negative into a positive quantity.
- 16 33. — "Quand y a du changement" c'est toujours de l'extra. Griad at Venner's tomb.
- 16 34. — Boodling on humanitarian grounds: wooden vs. stone steps at the Custom House Quebec.
- 17 35. — Above all, never go security for a contractor whose work you have to certify to.
- 17 36. — Working for two masters at a time is not always criminal, as prudes and fools suppose it is.
- 17 37. — Let a contractor pay you for every thing you are not bound to in virtue of your duty to your employers.