Unless the Farmer has a very diligent and industrious wife, who sees minutely to her dairy, or a most honest, diligent and careful house-keeper to do it for him, (but we would recommend all Farmer's to have a wife,) he will assuredly lose money by his dairy. The dairy maid must be up every morning at four o'clock, or she will be backward in her business. At five the Cows must be milked, and there must be milkers enough to finish by six. The same rule must be observed in the evening. After the milk is drawn from the Cow, it should be carefully strained through a linen cloth, or hair sieve into the cream dishes, which
