

- West Jersey—Continued
 constitution, 135; type of settlers, 138 et seq.; forests, 143-45, 147; cedar swamps,
 145-46; churches, 149; transportation, 149; united to East Jersey (1702), 150; county organization, 155; see also East Jersey, New Jersey
- Westchester County (N. Y.),
 Quakers, in, 7
- Whisky Rebellion, 49
- White Miqua Indians, 207
- Whitman, Walt, 152
- Whittier, J. G., 61
- Wicaco, village on site of Philadelphia, 218, 223
- Wilcox, Joseph, 77
- William III, and Penn, 12, 69-70; and toleration, 86, 71;
 placed on throne, 66, 178
- William and Mary, College of, 189
- William of Orange, see William
 III
- Willing, Thomas, 221
- Willington (Wilmington), 221
- Wilmington (Del.), 20, 201, 209; a Quaker town, 220-21;
 founding of, 221-23; customs of punishment, 222-23; churches, 223-24; commerce, 226; manufacturing, 226-27
- Woman in the Wilderness, Society of, in Pennsylvania, 42
- Woodbridge (N. J.), 171
- Woolman, John, Journal, 152, 192
- Wynnewood, Welsh origin of name, 37
- Wyoming Valley of Pennsylvania, Indians seek refuge in, 229-30
- Yegon, Peter, 137
- York, Duke of, and William Penn, 9, 13, 64, 224; ascends throne as James II, 63;
 given Dutch possessions in America, 129, 169; and West
 Jersey, 134; and East Jersey,
 173; rule in Delaware, 217,
 219; see also James II
- York (Penn.), 48
- Zion's Brueder in Pennsylvania, 42