country. There is more of a desire shown to get together and settle all differences amicably. In fact, I am looking forward to the time when disputes will be settled in private and settled so smoothly that the public will not even know anything of these differences at all.

The relations between capital and labor to-day are more satisfactory than they have been for the past 20 years," asserted Mr. Bancroft. "In my opinion much of this is due to the fact that extremists are out of favor in the ranks of both armies. The present-day working man has got away from the idea that the employer is his greatest enemy; 90 per cent. of the employers of labor have recognized unionism. It is plain, therefore, that a spirit of cooperation is growing up. On our part are disposed to foster it. We have made it an essential part of our constitution that no strike shall be called; we do not permit the calling of a strike until the employer has been given a chance to reason with the workers. In my opinion the settlement of the question at issue. We think it only fair that manufacturing and other labor-employing associations should be organized to represent their minority membership, who, by refusing recognition to organized labor, are delaying the coming of the age of general industrial peace."

Amongst the guests at the luncheon were Mayor Geary, Mayor Egeron (Rochester, N. Y.), W. F. Maclean, John Shaw, M.L.A., Edmund Bristol, W. K. McNaught, M.L.A., A. Claude Macdonell, Controller Church, James Simpson and W. J. Shaw.

There were just one hundred and eighty-one prize babies at the fair yesterday afternoon—the largest number of prize babies in the history of the exhibition. The prize babies were of all ages, from one month to one year, and were of all races and nationalities.

The judging this year was performed in a raised off enclosure beneath some trees to the north and west of the horticultural building. This was a very wise move, as it provided plenty of room and comfortable quarters in the cool breezy out-of-doors. As a result, although there was a huge crowd present, the youngsters were much better behaved than usual, and the mothers were able to relax and enjoy the show.

The prize winners in the various classes in order of merit, were: Class 1 (Boys 12 to 18 months)—Mrs. J. Hayman, 7 Parr-st., Toronto; Mrs. J. Jackson, 287 Westmoreland-ave., Toronto; Mrs. M. L. Wardell, 23 Montrose-ave., Toronto; Mrs. A. K. McLean, 442 East Gerrard-st., Toronto.

Class 2 (Girls 12 to 18 months)—Mrs. V. Southern, 118 Amelia-st., Toronto; Mrs. M. L. Wardell, 23 Montrose-ave., Toronto; Mrs. F. Livingston, 142 Wilton-ave., Toronto; Mrs. A. Brown, 45 Westmoreland-ave., Toronto.

Class 3 (Boys 18 months to 2 years)—Mrs. E. Wright, 106 E. Beaver-st., Toronto; Mrs. C. Aikens, 101 Close-ave., Toronto; Mrs. B. Smith, 320 East-gerard-st., Toronto.

Class 4 (Girls 18 months to 2 years)—Mrs. E. Wright, 106 E. Beaver-st., Toronto; Mrs. C. Aikens, 101 Close-ave., Toronto; Mrs. B. Smith, 320 East-gerard-st., Toronto.

Finally the first baby of each class was taken from the six classes, the winner of winners was Mrs. M. L. Wardell, 23 Montrose-ave., Toronto, who was awarded the grand prize of a silver cup and a certificate of honor.

Butter-Making Competitions. Big crowds patronized the butter-making competitions held in the auditorium of the dairy building every day, morning and afternoon, under the supervision of Miss Laura Rose of the Ontario Agricultural College. And real genuine interest is taken in the records of the various competitors.

which was cut short on Saturday by the downpour was concluded yesterday. The grand prize of $100, which was awarded to W. H. Miner of Chazy, New York.

The U. S. training ship Sandoval, anchored off the grounds yesterday, and her officers were the guests of the directors of the exhibition. She is a pretty little ship of the gunboat type, and attracted thousands to the lakefront.

The absence of all foreign national emblems from the official decorations of the exhibition has been the subject of considerable comment on the part of visitors from "across the line." One Canadian was heard yesterday explaining that the fair was entirely British in display, except on one day, when the Stars and Stripes would be given honored prominence.

More than sixty children were lost on the grounds and were kept at the police station until claimed by their parents. It was nearly as bad as the loss of the children's day. The chairs at the police station for parentless children were occupied most of the day, and often there were sorrowful meetings on the policemen's benches. At times the walls of sorrowful youngsters caused the policemen in the station to send their own prayers for deliverance. It certainly was bad at times.

Quite a few cases of pocket picking were reported to the police. In some cases the police think the complainants only lost their money, but in others the thieves were undoubtedly taken by slippery hands.

It was a good day for thieves, because great crowds of people were about. Many small hauls were made by the light-fingered ones. James Peabody of 128 Jarvis-street declared at the police station that some one's hand had lifted $35 in bills and two half sovereigns in gold, a total of $40 out of his hip pocket. It happened, he said, on the Midway at about 8 o'clock. He was in a dense crowd at the time.

"Had police kept money, a hip pocket," the police told him. That did not console him, tho. A woman reported that her satchel had been opened and the contents of a gold locket and chain, which had been around her neck. Someone had snipped the chain and made off with the affair.

The police have a number of articles turned into them, which were found during the day. They will be taken to the detective office in the city hall, where they can be claimed.

See the Glass Blowers. The wonderful dexterity with which the most beautiful objects of art are made from tube glass by O. H. Jones, of the Jarvis Co., has attracted a large crowd of visitors. The glass blower's art is a most interesting one to watch. The glass blower's art is a most interesting one to watch.

Purity in Food. The importance of purity in food and drink has become the most prominent question in the minds of the people to-day. Not only must the greatest care in sanitation be taken in manufacturing the nation's food supply, but only the purest and best ingredients should be used.

The stand that Christie, Brown & Co. have taken for purity in food products has placed them in the front rank of biscuit manufacturers in Canada to-day. Only the best ingredients are used, and the factory is a revelation of modern sanitation and cleanliness. Call and see their products on exhibition at the pretty stand in the manufacturers' building.

Harrows and Plows. An exhibit of interest in the manufacturers' building is that of the Harrow Plow Co. Their line of harrows, plows and wheelbarrows is the best on the market. Call and see their products on exhibition at the pretty stand in the manufacturers' building.

The Popular Marmalade. Scarcely a housewife in Canada but has used the celebrated Seville Orange Marmalade, manufactured by Waggstaffs Limited. That marmalade has won unprecedented success throughout the country. Only the finest Seville oranges are used in the make-up, and the greatest amount of care is taken in the sanitary handling of the fruits. The jelly shred marmalade has met Brookville Recorder's Attempt to Bluff Him Ends in Decidedly Inglorious Manner.

It looks as tho the last word has been said in the little passage at arms between the Brookville Recorder and Arthur Hawkes and as tho the latter easily belongs the laurels.

The World told yesterday how on Sunday Mr. Hawkes received an offer from Hon. Mr. Graham's paper to teach imperialism in Quebec and he promptly accepted, naming eminent by reasonable conditions. Yesterday the Recorder came back with a telegram in this wise:

Arthur Hawkes of yesterday received. Think delay of two weeks would be fatal. Afraid the anti-British offer must be suppressed at once. Matter is of greatest urgency. Your avowed object being patriotic in the present crisis is in Quebec. Will we urge the attendance of Liberals of Quebec lectures for your personal protection? Your duty is apparent. Will you not go at once?"

To this Mr. Hawkes replied as follows: Brookville Recorder Printing Co. Ltd.: "Greatly flattered by your telegram, but still think Canada your country, and the empire will be quite safe during my two weeks' further absence from Quebec. Anyhow, it will take you some time to arrange meetings for your personal protection, and I will meantime try to calm the public mind by a good one and I will visit Liberals to protect me from the attacks of the Conservatives."

Mr. Borden to attend to protect me from the attacks of the Conservatives. Depend on you to advise the populace at St. Jerome, two Mount St. Charles and Terrence to follow peaceful and reasonable while you complete arrangements for Sunday, the 17th and three following days." A. Hawkes.

WOULD BAR OUT IMPOSTORS. The fourth annual convention of the opticians' section of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada was held yesterday, and a large number of prominent opticians were present from all parts of Ontario.

The chief item of business was the consideration of the proposed legislation to protect the profession from impostors who misrepresent their qualifications and who thereby deceive the public. The meeting was unanimously in favor of the proposed bill, which gives the government the power to appoint a board of opticians who will issue certificates to qualified persons for the election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: Chairman, Alex. Ray, Belleville; first vice-chairman, F. C. Cunningham, Hamilton; second vice-chairman, G. W. Keefe, (Rivie Bros.), Toronto; treasurer, F. E. (Rivie Bros.), Toronto; secretary, E. M. Trow, Toronto; auditor, H. B. Wilkins, Toronto.
