RED NECKTIES MARKED FOR ROUGH TREATMENT

Socialist Meeting Disturbed at New York by American Soldiers and Sailors.

New York, Nov. 26.—To prevent a recurrence of the clash between Socialists and red neckties, the latter were marked with red neckties.

Several hundred men in uniform gathered in the hall, their number being augmented as the meeting progressed. They roughly handled one young woman wearing a miniature red flag in her hair, while taking it from her.

There was but one disturbance in the hall during the meeting. This was when a soldier and several civilians threw a red necktie from a man standing at the rear.

Women with red flowers or ribbons on their hats were addressed roughly by the uniformed men who demanded that the offending color be removed, but the police kept the internationalists moving. No attacks were made on women, but they were chased by sailors, and a few were beaten. The police always had the situation well in hand.

HALF A CENT A MILE CUT FROM PULLMAN FARES

Washington, Nov. 26.—Elimination of the one-half cent a mile extra railroad fare for Pullman travel effective Dec. 1, has been decided on by Director-General McAdoon.

The order to be issued soon also will remove other differentials imposed by the passenger rate order last June on tourist sleepers and other special accommodations. It will not affect any of the charges imposed by the Pullman company.

This will mean a loss to the railroads of between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000, it is estimated. No racial changes will be made soon in passenger train schedules, the general manager said today at the railroad administration. A few extra trains will be added to accommodate mid-winter tourist traffic to California and Florida.

NEW YORK TO COMBAT PROFITEERS IN FOOD

New York, Nov. 26.—The federal food board will begin tomorrow "wage war" on food profiteers and will put out of business any retailer charging more than the prices allowed by the food administration, declared John Mitchell, chairman of the state food commission, in an address here tonight.

"Uniformed policemen will tomorrow morning distribute to retail dealers through the city some 25,000 circulars issued by the federal food board," he said. "These will set forth the prices that retailers must pay, the gross margin of profit that is to be allowed them, and the prices that the consumers should pay. These circulars will be posted in the windows of stores."

Allies Decide to Retain Revictualing Organization

Paris, Nov. 26.—Capt. Andre Tardieu, head of the general commission for Franco-American war matters, was returned from London where he was in conference with Herbert C. Hoover, American food administrator. It was decided, Capt. Tardieu announced, that the international organization created for revictualing purposes will be maintained.

EUROPEAN SITUATION SUMMARIZED

It is proposed that the peace conference, instead of first attending to the practical matters on hand, such as the adjustment of territorial claims, fixing of indemnities and signing of peace treaties, shall proceed to the study of the proposal for a league of nations.

A section of allied diplomats, however, favors the holding over of the proposal for a league until the last, in order that the belligerents may settle the affairs of Europe as speedily as possible and begin the demobilization of their armies so as to cut expenses.

Winston Churchill, as a British cabinet minister, has some intimate knowledge of British policy. While speaking at Dundee he pleaded all the reasons for making a league of nations powerful, but he declared in the same address that such a league would be a substitute for the suzerainty of the victors.

He also declared that Germany would never again be allowed to conquer provinces.

This declaration of Churchill discloses that various allies have various interpretations of the purpose. Inter-allied conferences, therefore, generally agreed that to make such a league an effective instrument, each nation should surrender part of its sovereignty to an international force to compel submission to its decrees.

Large navies and put them under international control. If Britain is to retain her naval preponderance she cannot surrender control of her feet to international dictators. Room, however, exists for a league based on loyal co-operation among the powers.

AUSTRIAN ARCHDUKE SPECULATED IN MILK

Uncle of Ex-Emperor Charles Assisted in Hoisting Vienna's Food Prices.

Vienna, Nov. 26.—The food situation still is a general topic of conversation. It is evident that there is plenty of food in the hotels and restaurants, for those persons who are able to pay the equivalent of from two to five dollars for each meal.

The poor have been unable to obtain rice or macaroni. This class of the population is still alive is due simply to their endurance.

According to Dr. Walter Otis, an American, food conditions were never so bad as now, both in Vienna and in the country districts. On the farms there still are a certain number of pigs which are being fattened with milk.

His should keep chickens and learn how to make butter. The country shows were once more popular through the country," he said, "at macaroni also were once more popular through the country."

FROM KING'S UNIFORM TO CIVILIAN DRESS.

One of the surest signs that the war is over is the fact that demobilization of the boys who have given themselves in service to King and country is actually taking place.

REAL ESTATE SITUATION SHOWS MARKET IS BETTER

From our numerous sales of artisans' houses I judge the fact that the real estate situation is becoming stabilized. This was the opinion of B. Robins, president of Robins Limited, interviewed by The World.

"The market for real estate has a solid mass of homes and homes for workmen in the New Toronto district, a convenient to the big industrial area, and the market has also begun in the popular Danforth district in the northeastern section of the city. This is a very sound and substantial development in the real estate business, for workingmen are buying these pieces of property for the purpose of home building. They are settling the housing problem in a very practical and sensible manner for themselves."

"We have taken particular pride in being able to aid artisans during the past. The many comfortable homes of thirty or more in the East End, at V. Ughan road and St. Clair street, Danforth district and East Queen street section opposite the Cobden bear stone, a testimony to the help given to the workmen in the past. The workmen today needs all the help he can get, and we are going to do all we can to help."

"Toronto is short thousands of homes, and the need of homes will be multiplied each succeeding month. To meet the increasing need of homes we have built and sold many homes on terms that have been a real assistance to the purchaser. The demand for homes has been greater than our supply; consequently many home building sites have been further subdivided into smaller lots, upon which workmen will be able to build their own homes in the future. This is a movement to take up our belief that the best solution of the housing problem is to enable the workman to own his own home on terms that are not a financial hardship. In fact, much easier and pleasanter than rent."

NO COFFINS FOR DEAD IN VIENNA EPIDEMIC

Vienna, Nov. 26.—There has been a diminution in the violence of the influenza epidemic, which resulted, at its height, in the death of 400 persons daily. The dead were being placed in the bodies covered with wrapping paper and sacks, as there was no wood available for the making of coffins, and no workmen to construct them had wood obtainable.
