

$25—BROADVIEW AVENUE—Delivered by car, including and overlooking River. See Park this lot as it is the best in the city. The house is a masterpiece of building construction and is a masterpiece of interior decoration.

H. H. Williams & Co., 26 Victoria St.

TWENTY-SIXTH
Municipal Ownership Party Secures Order From Judge Seizing All Ballot Boxes as Prelude to Recount.

30,000 HEARST VOTERS ROBBED.
1000 Election Inspectors Acted Illegally—Vote Recount and Terrorized—Tribunal Believes Recount Will Be Tammany.

New York, Nov. 8.—A campaign to demand Tammany Hall in the supreme court and to declare William R. Hearst the rightfully elected mayor of New York yesterday in place of George B. McClellan, was inaugurated at a crowded meeting of Municipal Ownership League leaders to-day. At its close Mr. Hearst said:

"We are going to fight to-day, tomorrow and next year to make it possible for a man to cast an honest vote and to prevent in the future conditions as disgraceful as were yesterday, especially in Sullivan's and Murphy's districts, and we will cast every legal means to have every ballot honestly counted. We are receiving voluntary offers of money from business men to aid us in this appeal."

His lieutenants then announced evidence that 30,000 Hearst men were deprived of their right to vote yesterday and that 1000 election inspectors were guilty of illegal acts, and that the count was carried illegally by the heads of the board of county canvassers into the supreme court. They said the object of this plan was to secure a speedy and final answer and that money was not to be spared in engaging special counsel to make this plan succeed.

With the granting of an order by Supreme Court Justice Gaynor in Brooklyn to-night, compelling Police Commissioner McAdoo to remove every ballot-box from all the precincts in Greater New York to the bureau of elections, Hearst took his first legal step in a fight to secure the recount.

The leaders said that in less than 24 hours after the polls closed the Municipal Ownership League had secured 1000 affidavits charging illegal acts against 1000 election inspectors. These affidavits state that the inspectors, who were Tammany men, Hearst himself said that within a year a "chain of these men" would be sent to Sing Sing.

30,000 Illegal Votes.
It also alleged that in east side assembly districts including the 18th (Charles F. Murphy's district) affidavits have been secured to show that at least 30,000 votes were illegally cast yesterday in the names of voters who went to the polls to vote for Hearst and the Municipal Ownership League ticket but who, when they arrived, found names voted upon already.

At Hearst's headquarters last night, waiting for the lawyers of the Municipal Ownership League, were scores of Hearst voters who declared they had been outraged at polling places where they had gone to cast their ballots. Men were coming with bruised and bleeding faces. One man had his arm broken and another's head was bled. Hearst had him put to bed in the hotel. Reports were brought in telling of one man having his hand and finger had been chewed off in a polling place.

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

Justice McAdoo, of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held this afternoon the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization has received an outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League, to overthrow the will of the people as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and directs the committee to execute the threats and take such steps and institute such proceedings as may be necessary to prevent such a course. Mr. McClellan as Mayor of New York."

WHO IS ON TRIAL—AYLESWORTH OR MACLEAN?

There is a lawyer in Toronto named A. B. Aylesworth, whom Sir Wilfrid Laurier has called to his cabinet as postmaster-general, an office which has a salary of $7000 attached to it and after five years of service carries with it a pension for life of $3500 a year. This pension was voted at the last session of parliament and is a matter in which the people take a deep interest, in order to continue to hold this position which Mr. Aylesworth has just assumed.

The postmaster-general of Canada, like the postmaster-general in England, is a member of the house of commons. This position, if he is elected, carries an indemnity of $2500 a year, $1000 a year additional having been voted last session by parliament on the recommendation of the Laurier government. The people are also taking a deep interest in the increased indemnity. They do not like either the pensions or the increased indemnities. Mr. Aylesworth has decided that he will ask the people of North York to make him their representative in parliament and at the same time endorse his joining the Laurier government. North York is the constituency recently represented by the late postmaster-general, Sir William Mulock. Mr. Aylesworth is now making that appeal and the day for the election has been set for the 22nd day of this month.

The postmaster-general of Canada, like the postmaster-general in England, has charge of the whole postoffice system and anything connected with it. In England the postmaster-general has not only the postoffice, but he administers a splendidly organized parcel post system, which gives a faster and cheaper service to the people than the express system owned by private companies in Canada supplies. The postmaster-general in England is also charged with the administration of the telegraph lines in that country, which are now the property of the state, and is also charged with the property of the state and the balance of which is to be taken over in a very short time.

So that it will be seen the postmaster-general in England has to do with the postoffice, the parcel post service, the telephone business and the telegraph business. We in this country are moving in somewhat the same lines. We have an inferior parcel post system which might be greatly improved and expanded and made much cheaper if the express companies owned by the large and powerful interests of the express companies owned by the large railway corporations. There is also a desire in this country to nationalize the telegraph and telephones of this country, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the late postmaster-general, is known to have been moving on both these lines.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

It is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a committee appointed to investigate the whole question of telephones, and it is no secret to say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was personally in favor of state ownership of the telephone service. The great bulk of the evidence presented to the committee was in favor of state ownership, except the evidence and the arguments that were presented by the Bell Telephone Company.

BIRTHDAY HONOR LIST
FROM KING TO CANADA

Senator Gowan of Barrie and Commodore Paget of North Atlantic Squadron Are Signed Out for Rank of K.C.M.G.

COL. PELLATT OF Q.O.R. IS A K.B.

Gen. Lake and Two Civil Service Officials Are Also Named—Duchess of Fife Authorized to Bear Title of Princess.

KING'S BIRTHDAY HONORS.
SENATOR GOWAN, K.C., LL.D., of Barrie, 50 years of age, to the K.C.M.G. for services in sailing the French-Newsland difficulty.

COMMODORE ALBERT WYNDELL FAGET, commander of N. A. Squadron, to be K.C.M.G., son of the late Sir Albert Faget, of Egypt and Sudan and was naval attaché at Washington.

MAJ.-GEN. L. K. E. commander of Canadian militia, to be K.C.M.G.

WM. SAUNDERS, director of experimental farms Ottawa, to be C.M.G.

GEN. DOUGHTY, archdeacon, Ottawa, to be C.M.G.

LIEUT.-COL. H. M. PELLATT, of Toronto, to be knight bachelor.

The above honors are contained in the birthday honor list of his majesty the King, who to-day celebrated his 64th birthday.

The list contains a few other features of general interest, chiefly concerning individuals who are rewarded for service to the crown. The Duchess of Fife, eldest daughter of his majesty, is authorized to bear the title of princess royal, and her daughters to be designated as highness and princess.

Baron Windsor, 21 years of age, is created an earl. Baron Ivesh (Edward Cecil Guinness) a made a knight bachelor.

Admiral Davis and Brownson will go aboard the British battleship King of the Kings birthday, and Prince Louis will be knighted on the occasion of the King's birthday, and Prince Louis will be knighted on the occasion of the King's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

There will be a royal salute fired by the Field Battery at noon to-day in honor of his majesty's birthday.

AN ATTACK ON BENNETT IS CORPORATION-BOUND

For That Reason the Conservative Leader in Alberta is Charged With Having Ruined the Campaign.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The campaign closed in Calgary to-night with a remarkable outbreak against R. B. Bennett, the Conservative leader. The Upright, the weekly paper published by Robert Edwards, which has previously supported Bennett, came out in a bitter attack on the C.P.E. solicitor. The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

The charge is made by The Upright that Bennett was never legally elected to the office of premier of the province of Alberta.

HIS "FALSE FRONT"

Refuses to Accept Re-Election by Contest From Third Ward Conservatives and A. W. Owens Succeeds Him.

BEATTIE NESSBITT ON INDEPENDENTS.
He Believes Encouraging Men of Ideas—Would Like to See City Council Elected on Party Vote.

President J. W. Seymour Corley of the Third-Ward Conservative Association went to the annual meeting last night feeling that, so far as re-election was concerned, the office should seek the man. If everybody present wasn't prepared to concede his right to stay, where he was, the secretary of authority didn't appeal to him as a thing of value. But it was a small gathering of 150 or thereabouts in St. Paul's Hall, and there was not the needed oneness of mind. But it took an hour and a half to decide that A. W. Owens was to be president and the situation took on many sides during that time.

Dr. Beattie Nessbitt, president and with Corley on the platform were: President Corley, Secretary W. J. Townley, A. W. Owens, Robert Edgar, A. C. Macdonell, M. P. C. E. Macdonell, A. J. Owens, A. J. Geary, J. W. Burns, T. P. Galt, A. W. Smith, Thomas Geary, E. B. Ryckman, Dr. J. O. Orr, Trustee Rawlinson, Alex. Patterson, W. D. Kearney.

When Mr. Owens was nominated everybody in the hall, save possibly Mr. Owens himself, was disappointed at President Corley's announcement of a firm purpose of giving him an unobstructed path to the office he wanted. That it was that the other nominee rose to state that he would not oppose Mr. Corley. He stated that the two former contestants with the latter he had given his promise not to stand in his way.

"You see," said Mr. Owens, "I want a fight!" ruled Chairman Nessbitt. The meeting agreed with him, but the principals showed an obvious unwillingness to don the gloves. Instead, they discovered his abilities in one another and told the audience about it. Time went off.

Street Again.
"As Mr. Owens was not re-elected," said the chairman slowly, with the air of a man who would withdraw, "the nominations be reopened, and the idea was eagerly taken hold of, with the result that the two former contestants were pushed into the arena, together with Frank Johnson and A. W. Smith. The meeting was a four-cornered contest. He was going to drop out and would have his support in the city. The small attendance showed the organization needed a change. Mr. Corley should have been elected president. The president assured him that he had done so."

The chairman was unsympathetic towards Mr. Owens' attitude of self-satisfaction, and led him to the gathering to decide whether or not to withdraw. The meeting allowed the sacrifice to be made and permitted Mr. Johnson to withdraw. It had narrowed down again.

Continued on Page 2.

MAY LOSE P. W. HODSON.
Ottawa, Nov. 8.—P. W. Hodson, vice president of the Salvation Army, has been offered, and will probably accept, a position in connection with the Salvation Army, Ontario division.

NEW YORK AND NORTH YORK.
It has been the fashion to speak of W. R. Hearst and his associates as "yellow." The corporation press especially are fond of so using the adjective. There never was so splendid advocacy of the people's cause as Hearst's in connection with the old line corporation papers and the corporation lawyers fear him.

Tammany is in the service of the corporations in New York, and the Liberal party is the same in Canada.

Where would Mr. Aylesworth be in the service of the corporations in New York? Certainly not with Jerome a lawyer who has consecrated his best talents to the legal battles of the people. He takes no service in the cause of the corporations.

Watch the corporation papers in Toronto refer in glowing terms to the sweep of New York by public ownership, and in their next column advocate A. B. Aylesworth, the enemy of public ownership in Canada, as postmaster-general and member for North York. They do not carry their New York platitudes into cold practice in North York.

A Substantial Coon.
The man who has one nose knows the full value of a coon coat. It is full of cozy and comfortable as it looks. It has durable qualities not possessed by other coats. It always looks well. You can't hurt it unless you set fire to it and it's so warm you don't need to that.

Not only the gentlemen who live in the country but many in the city will use coon coats that will interest them at Dineen's. Prices $45 to $100, with a run on some beauties as specials at $35 and $50 for the past and the next few days.

SNOW FLURRIES.
Meteorological Office, Toronto, Nov. 8.—(p.m.)—The weather has been fair from British Columbia to Manitoba; elsewhere continued unsettled, with light falls of rain or snow. Minimum temperatures: Victoria, 42°; Edmonton, 24°; Calgary, 22°; Winnipeg, 24°; Winnipeg, 22°; Toronto, 32°; Quebec, 32°; Montreal, 34°; Halifax, 32°.

DEATHS.
MILLIGAN—At her father's residence, 163 Cumberland-st., Toronto, on Tuesday, the 7th November, 1905, May, only daughter of Frederick and Sarah Milligan, in her 20th year.

Funeral from above address on Thursday, the 9th, at 3 o'clock. Interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

BOYNTREE—On Nov. 8th, at Hospital for Consumptives, George Rowntree, in his 83rd year.

Funeral from the homestead, Carlton, Friday, the 10th, at 2 p.m. Interment in family burying ground on the Weston road.

STEWART—On Tuesday, Nov. 7, 1905, at her late residence, 55 Alexander-st., Joanna Charlotte, widow of the late Wm. Stewart, in her 82nd year.

Funeral private.

Do You Check Watchmen?
We are checking 50 per cent. of the night watchmen in Toronto. The board of underwriters allow a rebate on buildings and contents of buildings using our system of night watch signals. Information fully given on application. The Holmes Electric Protection Co. of Toronto, Limited, 5 Steward-st., Toronto.

MacLeod's uptown tailor, for good service. Yonge and Colleg' sts.

ONE CENT

PRESIDENT CORLEY RETIRES
VERY GLAD TO QUIT OFFICE

Refuses to Accept Re-Election by Contest From Third Ward Conservatives and A. W. Owens Succeeds Him.

BEATTIE NESSBITT ON INDEPENDENTS.
He Believes Encouraging Men of Ideas—Would Like to See City Council Elected on Party Vote.

President J. W. Seymour Corley of the Third-Ward Conservative Association went to the annual meeting last night feeling that, so far as re-election was concerned, the office should seek the man. If everybody present wasn't prepared to concede his right to stay, where he was, the