Welcome To Visitors

We have decided for business reasons to keep our entire display at the store this year instead of at the Exhibition, and have made unusual preparations to make things interesting to visitors. The tendency is more and more for people to include the store in their round of attractions, and almost mobody comes to Toronto without seeing what Yonge Street has to say about style and novelty. We claim your interest

Formally Opens New House of Refuge of Prince Edward County

Picton, Aug. 28.-Prince Edward County's House of Refuge was formally opened this afternoon. Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, was the speaker of the day.

Warden J. M. Mullory was chairman, and County Clerk Young presented Mr. Hanna with an address. Others present who made short speeches were Dr. M. Curry, M. L. A.; George O. Alcorn, M. P., and ex-Mayor Boulter. The first Semi-ready Wardrobe is now open at 472 Queen West

General Movement Likely to Be Inaugurated-Proposal to Shift Headquarters.

The real work of the United Garment Workers' convention will begin to-day, when committees appointed yesterday bring in their findings for discussion a recommendation re the shorter workday. In this connection it appears that conditions in Canada are better than in the United States, altho the union is only about half the age in this country that it is across the line.

In all branches of the trade in Canada 49 hours a week is the limit, while in the States the least they are working is 54 hours, with the exception of some of the cutters. The committee will likely propose that at a given time negotiations be started all thru the United States for a campaign with 49 hours a week in view

About twenty delegates from different sections spoke on this question and were emphatic that the Garment Workers' strike at Utica should be won. strike at Utica should be won. Another boost for the Utica strikers came with the adoption of a resolution that all delegates being absent at roll call each day be fined $1 each, the proceeds each day be fined $1 each, the proceeds to be devoted toward the strike.

The Utica situation as explained by Secretary Landers is this: The Roberts-wicks Clothing Company were a union label house, working 59 hours a week, competing against other label houses working 54 hours. In the beginning of May 500 employes went on strike for 54 hours a week. Their agreement, which held until June 1, having not yet expired, and the firm having proyet expired, and the firm having pro-mised to accede to 54 hours on that date, they were ordered back, but when June came the firm refused to make good its promise and the strike is a

At the morning session yesterday, President T. A. Rickert presented his report urging that the special committee continue its work with a view towards merging the Journeymen Tailors' Union with the United Garment Workers; that the Garment Workers reta jurisdiction over all shirt workers; that it was essential for trade unionists to keep their agreements with their employers to the very letter, as they expected their employers to do with them; that the stand of the American Federation of Labor in support for parlia-mentary election, of only men who carry union cards, be endorsed.

Telephone System Monopoly Fought in Two Provinces

PEOPLE REAP THE BENEFIT

Independent Service Declared by It to Violate Contract.

Levis, Que., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—The

Bell Telephone Co. has a fight on in this province. The Bellechasse Co. is an independent company, with headquarters in this town. It has over two thousand subscribers and covers a large territory, thus making it a formidable competitor of the Bell. working agreement with the Bell Tele-phone Co., in which the only, restriction on the use of the Bell instrument is that the subscriber "shall not other individuals, except his servant upon his business," nor shall they "be used for any tolls or consideration to be paid by any person other than the

But what has been the result?

The following letter from the local manager of the Bell Co. at Levis to the Bellechasse Telephone Company explains itself:

A Letter in Protest.

"I beg to draw your attention to the repeated and continuous violation by your company of the terms of its contract No. 358 with this company.

"If you will refer to the form of contract under which our instrument was installed in your office you will find that telephone service is to be furnished by this company for the exclusive use of your company, and that you undertook not to extend the use of our instrument in your office to individuals other than your servants upon your regular business.

"Contrary to this clause of the contract, I am informed that our instrument is frequently used by your employes for the purpose of transmission of various messages for outside parties, presumably subscribers to your system. I think you will agree there can be no question that such a practice constitutes a direct violation of the largest New Brunswick Tomp hone company saction is said to arbitrary, unjust and unbusinesslik.

Architect Baker is optimistic concerning the progress being made on the new Traders' Bank building. To The World last night Mr. Baker said: Everything is moving just as rapidly and smoothly as we could possibly desire, and I see no reason why we should not occupy the building on Oct I, as we have planned. Just now the elevators are being finished up and were given a preliminary trial yesterday with most gratifying results. Three Babcock and Woodcock boilers are installed and two 120 kilowat mo-tors are being put in for the purpose of generating light, but for the pre-sent we will operate with a temporary plant. "On the bank floor the progress is just as gratifying. The marble floor is being laid and the ceiling is practically finished. Over a large part of the building the wood trimming is finished and the plastering is about all done. The plumbers are well on and done. RIVAL COMPANIES AT WAR

Use of its Lines to Supplement an Blair's New Brunswick Co. Breaks Agreement With Independent and Precipitates Campaign.

There is an interesting telephone fight Hon. A. G. Blair is president of the pany, or something very much like it in Telephone Company, which is not unlike the Independent Telephone Company of Ontario. The two companies for a extend the use of the instrument to time worked in harmony, but of late, owing to the progressive management of the Central Company, rural communities were getting the benefit of the be paid by any person other than the subscriber."

But Dr. Demers, the secretary of the Bellechasse Co., has got into difficulty with the Bell Company. In explaining his position he says, "We have a Bell instrument installed in our office by Bell employes. It is close to one of our instruments with our Levis exchange. If one of our subscribers wants a connection with the Bell lines we take down in writing his message, which we immediately forward on the Bell, and after we have read the communication to the proper party we take down his reply, which we immediately read to our subscriber. We get a reply generally inside of five minutes. We don't charge anything for a transmission of such calls over the Bell lines, we are only paid according to the mileage such a call travels on our lines."

But Dr. Demers, the secretary of the subays taken the position that its telephones were for the thickly-populated communities, and where much money could be quickly got with but little expenditure on extension lines.

All the north shore towns have been cut off from communication with outside points, owing to the fact that the New Brunswick Telephone Company. This has come suddenly and without warning, and is merely an episode in the fight for control of the telephone business in New Brunswick.

The newspapers, those that are independent, claim that the New Brunswick Telephone Company, under its charter, got certain privileges from the public and agreed to receive or transmit all got certain privileges from the public and agreed to receive or transmit all messages at a reasonable charge or toil, and that it can be compelled to do so if a citizen cares to undergo the expense of an application to the railway commission. The New Brunswick Telephone Company's action is said to be arbitrary united and unbursacelline.

The Glant's Strength.

The fact that the Central Company but recently entered the field as a competitor has roused the anger of the New Brunswick Company, which, with all the sharpness of the Bell monopoly, now proposes to put its rival out of business, even if the people have to suffer. One paper in discussing the action of the New Brunswick Company, declares that "it has ignored the rights of the people in the most arrogant and arbitrary manner."

President Blair, in an interview, goes on record as saying that nothing can be gained by any community, already served at reasonable rates by one tele-phone company, encouraging the intro-duction of a second. In his experience he has found, he says, that not only are two telephone systems in a town, up to the size of the largest New Brunswick town, a nuisance but a most expensive nuisance as well. He is it nuisance as well. He ates that the campaign of the Central Telephone Company has but one end in view, which is to get the New Bruns-wick Telephone Company to take over wick Telephone Company to take over its rival and thus enhance the value of

The Cause of It.

T. H. Estabrook, president of the Central Telephone, Company, denies that there is any intention on the part of his company to seek a merger with the New Brunswick Telephone Company. In explaining the fight, or the cause of the fight, he says the relations of the Central with the New Brunswick Telephone Company were friendly until the New Brunswick Company attempted to put in an exchange in opposition to the Central in the Town of Campbelton, and informed the Central Com its lines on the eastern side of the pro for the rural, or farmers', business was made the centre of it. The Centra ncton, and this has been a source of much annoyance to Mr. Blair and the New Brunswick Telephone Company. The fight is still on, and the isssue in doubt, but the public sentiment in favor of an independent line or any-thing that will bring about a degree of competition with the New Bruns-wick Telephone Company is so strong that there is little doubt that the days of the New Brunswick Telephone Company makes strengthens our position and weakens their own. Our people are just like the people in any other province; they can be led, but they won't be driven."
