Hamilton Happenings

Crowded Cars Collide-Board Works Complain Against Street Railway.

HAMILTON, June 18.—(Special.) shortly before 10 o'clock to-night there was a bad collision on the street rail way at the corner of Barton and Shernan-avenue. Two cars, one going east and the other going west, collided at the corner. Both were packed with passengers, mostly women and children, taking in the belt line trip for an airing, and both were traveling at a lively gait. When they crashed into each other the lights went out, but the motors, from which the motormen did not have time to shut off the power, that cridding ways and with the motors. kept griding away and with the screaming of women and children, made an alarming noise. When order was restored, many of the children and women had to be carried into neighboring houses and three doctors had their hands full

While many suffered severe shocks and bruises the only one seriously injured was Mrs. homas Barnes, 15 Ful-lerton-avenue, whose skull was fractured. Mrs. Clemence, 5 Emily-street, and Mrs. Page, Kenilworth, and Thos. and Mrs. Page, Kenilworth, and Thos. Burdett, 198 Simcoe-street, were all taken to the city hospital to have bruises and cuts attended to. Both motormen escaped uninjured. The cause of the mishap was an open switch at the corner, which turned the east-bound car on to Sanford-avenue just bound car on to Sanford-avenue just as the west-bound car came along.

Complain Against Railway. At the board of works meeting this evening fault was found about the wholesale way in which the railways are tearing up King, Main and Hessstreets, and instructions were issued to the city engineer to see that the com-panies finish up one part before pro-ceeding to tear up the rest of the

The Anglican synod of the Diocese of Niagara opened this morning. Bishop DulMoulin, in his address, announced the following promotions: Rev. Canon Forneret, to be archdeacon of Wellington; Rev. P. L. Spencer, Mount Forest, to be a camon; Rev. Canon Sutherland, a sub-deacon of the Cathedral. The bishop thought there should be a strict enquiry into the cause of the many changes amongst the clergymen of the diocese. He onnounced his intention of attendthe Pan-Anglican congress in London, England, in June next year Speaking of missions, the bishop said he thought their duty was to set their could attend to domestic and foreign missions. During the year he confirmed 1029 candidates in the diocese. Of the 104 churches in the diocese, gratitude to God for the prospect of 18 paid more than their, apportionments, 42 paid in full, 19 exceeded two-thirds, and five made no response.
