

Public worship was held for the last time by this congregation in its old place of worship, the venerated Free Church, Cote Street, on Sabbath the 3rd day of March, 1878, on which day the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed by the Rev. Principal McVicar, and since which day this old building has been closed for public worship. On the following Sabbath, being the 10th day of the same month, this congregation met for the first time for public worship in the new building called the "Crescent Street Presbyterian Church." The opening services were as follows:—At the forenoon service, commencing at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. McVicar conducted the devotional exercises, and the Rev. Dr. Ormiston, of New York, preached the sermon. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock another service was held, the devotional exercises being conducted by the Rev. A. B. Mackay, of Brighton, England, and the sermon preached by the Rev. Principal McVicar. The evening service commenced at 7 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Ormiston, of New York, conducted the devotional exercises, and the sermon being preached by the Rev. A. B. Mackay, of Brighton, England.
