The statement that Uncle Sam's Y. M. C. A.'s will remain steadfast to their C. A. A. U., affiliation is interesting at this time, when the American Union is bringing every fair and foul pressure to bear to injure the Canadian Union. Dr. Fisher, international secretary, writes to J. Howard Crocker, the physical director of the Central Y. M. C. A., stating that relations between United States and Canadian Y. M. C.A.'s remain as before, and that he would be glad to co-operate in any way in athletic contests which would be to Centrals' advantage. Thus the United States Y. M. C.A. athletes may come to Canada and meet C.A.A.U. and Y. M. C.A. —men, as of yore.

In the face of this, the Sullivan union will endeavor to stop an international exchange of courtesies unless the Canadian A. A. U. by the A. A. To-night at 9.30 the 48th and Q.O.R. regimental teams will settle their dispute for the supremacy of Eastern Ontario. As the players will be mostly & Co., for the 48th, and C Co., for the Q.O.R. it should be a close game. In the first game of this league the Q.O.R. defeated the 48th, who had strengthened up considerably, won out by one run. This left the section a tie. Needless to say, tonight's game will be exciting from beginning to end. The winner will play Windsof on Saturday night for the Canadian championship. mount when they fell.

The report that the Washington House of Representatives had decided to stop betting at Bennings caused consternation at the track. Notwithstanding there were no arrests at the course, Sol.
