Westminster Church. The meeting at Westminster Church, East Bloor-street, was presided over by R. A. Nisbet, chairman of the board of management, and Rev. Dr. J. Nell, the pastor, took the opening services. The session reported 126 new members, but as nearly the same number had severed their connection, the congre-gation still numbered about the same as last January, namely, 940 members. The sum of $12,124.52 was raised bers. The sum of $12,124.52 was raised for purely congregational purposes. Out of this amount, $1500 was paid on the church debt, and a considerable sum used to liquidate the debt on the organ. Last year the church raised $12,000 for missionary purposes, and altho all the amounts promised have for purely congregational purposes. Out of this amount, $1500 was paid on the church debt, and a considerable sum used to liquidate the debt on the organ. Last year the church raised $12,000 for missionary purposes, and altho all the amounts promised have not yet been paid in, the congregation hopes to raise a similar sum this year. When all the financial statements are taken together they show that over $24,000 was raised during the past twelve months. Reports received from $1. David's and Harwood, two missions of Westminster, indicated that the work in both of them is progressing favorably. The following managers were elected for two year terms: Messrs. R. A. Nishet, D. T. McIntosh, A. R. Pringle, Geo. Hendrie, Richard Knowles, A. Miller and C. S. Macdonald.
