The Gift of Universal Acceptance---Gloves

Our Great Christmas Display of Gloves Includes Every Desirable Kind for Comfort and Good Appearance, and for Men, Women and Children

THERE'S probably no other article so popular for gifts as gloves. They make most acceptable presents and are certain to give every satisfaction, for gloves are of every day use and a necessity. A man can never have too many pairs to keep his daily glove needs supplied; he desires to wear a clean pair at all times anyway. A woman must have a variety of gloves to match her gowns and she particularly fancies white gloves. And children simply must have gloves to keep their delicate little hands warm, they're continually losing their mittens anyway, so that an extra pair or two will never go amiss for use.

So therefore, no matter to whom you give gloves, they're almost sure of appreciation. Upon request we will tie each pair of gloves in a dainty gift box, and if they do not correctly fit the recipient, we will willingly make the necessary exchange any day during the week after Christmas.
