

LUNENBURG has sent $87.05, which is a third more than last year.
 From MAHONE BAY we regret to note that no return has been made for 1866.
 From MAITLAND we have received $105.00, which, the Missionary remarks, "is a considerable increase upon last year's contribution."
 MANCHESTER has sent to the Society $15.17.

MELFORD has sent $31.10, which is a falling-off from last year. The Missionary remarks "that great exertions are making to build a parsonage, and that there has been more money raised for Church matters during the last twelve months than for many years put together before."

NEW DUBLIN has sent $49.00, which is $20.00 more than in 1865.
 From New Ross a list amounting to $43.00 has been received, which is at least a fourth more than in 1865. The Church people there, though numerous, are poor and scattered. It is at much cost of personal labor by the Missionary that the amount is collected.

The return from NEWPORT and Walton is $83.13, nearly a fourth more than in 1865.

PARRSBOROUGH has been omitted from the list of Local Committees.

PICTOU has sent $91.47. The list was sent too late for the Report. The return for last year was $68.30.

PORT MEDWAY (formerly part of the Parish of Liverpool) appears for the first time, and has sent in a list amounting to $43.32.

From PUGVASH we have received $73.38.

RAWDON has returned $25.63, which is much less than in 1865.

SACKVILLE has sent $28.87, a little more than in 1865.
 From SHELBURNE we have received $121.96. Last year the return was $118.00. This parish is now contributing largely toward the support of an assistant-Missionary, and making exertions to build a parsonage.

The Missionary at SHIP HARBOR has sent $100.00, which is fully one-third more than in 1865.

STEWIACKE has sent $26.36, which is much less than last year's contribution.

From St. MARGARET'S BAY has been received $71.13, which is more than twice the amount of last year.

From SYDNEY, C.B., has been sent a list amounting to $137.37, being nearly twice the amount of last year. The interests of the Society appear to have received a fresh impulse during the past year.

SYDNEY MINES has sent in $32.00, which, as the Missionary states, is some improvement on last year's return.

THREE FATHOM HARBOR appears for the first time on our lists, and has added $48.00 to the income of the Society. This was formerly part of Dartmouth parish.

TRURO has sent in a list of $142.55 which is $50.00 more than the return of last year.

TUSKET, though now without a resident missionary, has, by the exertions of the Rector of Yarmouth, contributed $25.00.
