

XI Month.

NOVEMBER, 30 days.

Autumn.

both sprang up to kiss their father; "but we have no time to lose dear father," said Sally, pressing her cheek to his, and speaking in a kind of coaxing whisper close to his ear, "for these shirts are the last of the dozen we have been making for Mr. Farley in the corn-market." "And as no work can be done to-morrow," added Bessy, gravely, who stood with her small hand in her father's, "we are all working as hard as we can, for mother has promised to take them home on Monday afternoon."

"Either your eyes are very weak to-night dear wife," said George, "or you have been crying.—I'm afraid you work too hard by candlelight."

Susan smiled and said, "Working does not hurt my eyes," and
