A Royal Treat for Gift Buyers

With $10,000 worth of Manufacturers' Samples and Discontinued Patterns we begin Monday our Semi-Annual

Sale of Arts and Crafts Furniture

Just one month later than usual in conducting this semi-yearly distribution of mission—or Arts and Crafts—pieces, due to the fact that the extensive alterations going on here prevented us bringing the goods purchased for the sale on our floors. For those unacquainted with this sale we would say that twice a year our buyer makes periodical trips to the Mission furniture centres and buys up all the discontinued patterns and sample pieces, there being a tacit understanding between the makers and this store that we receive first option on the purchase of these odd pieces.

An Immense Collection—Scarcely Two Pieces Alike—All Priced at Tempting Figures

Every one will see in this sale a grand opportunity to buy beautiful furniture for their homes, or splendid Christmas gifts. The wonderful part about the collection is that there will be very few duplicates, almost every piece being unique, different, odd, rare, unusual—just such furniture as art-n-the-home folks will delight to see, and that anyone would be glad to possess. Here are examples that index the price cutting:
