

It is matter for congratulation that there are no deaths to record for the year, and the fact seems marvellous when we remember the large number who suffered from some form of severe illness, especially in the case of a delicate female pupil who had dropsy of the chest, from chronic pleurisy. This patient had a similar attack on the opposite side of the chest, the previous year, and she was advised not to return to the Institution, especially as there was a consumptive tendency in her family history.

I take pleasure in acknowledging my obligations to the Principal for his earnest co-operation in enforcing all needed sanitary regulations, and for his countenance and support generally, in the discharge of my responsible duties.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

WILLIAM C. CORSON, M.D.,

Physician.
