LOCAL NEWS

Hearing in the case of G. W. McCreedy vs. The Maritime Pulp and Paper Co. was continued yesterday afternoon before Mr. Justice Crockett. The taking of evidence was concluded and the matter set over until September 20.

The county secretary's office has now completed compilation of a list of properties in the county that will be listed for auction sale owing to taxes on same being in arrears. These properties total 187 and are divided among the four parishes as follows: Simonds, 162; Lancaster, 17; Musquash, 4; St. Martins, 4. This list will be advertised and a public auction sale will be held soon.

T. W. Caldwell, M.P., of Carleton county held a conference with J. C. Chesley, local agent of the Marine and Fisheries department, yesterday, with a view to obtaining a warehouse for handling of potatoes being shipped to Cuba and the West Indies. In company with the government engineer they visited government sheds in West St. John. It is expected that satisfactory arrangements will be made.

George A. Margetta, who has been appointed manager of the Famous Players-Lasky offices in Winnipeg, takes with him the best wishes of a host of friends. He was very popular in this city and took a great interest in promoting sport. His departure was marked by a presentation from his office staff, he being made the recipient of a wardrobe trunk, and there were several other presentations. Mrs. Margetta and daughter will remain here until Mr. Margetta is able to get living quarters in Winnipeg. P. J. Hogan of Toronto, a native of Newfoundland, will succeed Mr. Margetta here.
