LOCAL NEWS
CHILDREN DEAD.
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Shelley of 24 Prospect street have the sympathy of friends in the death of their infant child. Friends will sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Fuller of 238 Rodney street, West End, in the death of their youngest child, Herbert L. Lincoln, aged a little more than two years.

CHRISTMAS SHIPS.
The C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Britain is scheduled to sail from here tomorrow evening for Liverpool with 885 passengers, royal mail and general cargo. The passengers are divided as follows: 135 cabin, 50 second class, and 700 third class. The Empress is expected to reach Liverpool in time to allow her passengers to reach their various destinations before Christmas.

THE FORTY HOURS.
Services in connection with the Forty Hours' devotion, which are being held in St. Peter's church, were continued last evening and again this morning. Last evening Rev. George Coffin, C. S. S. R., officiated, and was assisted by Rev. Denis Coll, C. S. S. R., and Rev. James Woods, C. S. S. R. The devotion will be brought to a close this evening.

CHECKER'S PAY.
A conference was held this morning between local shipping interests and steamship checkers. Some time ago the latter sent in a schedule, but this morning it is said they were informed that they would be given the same rate as last year, namely fifty-eight cents an hour. Some minor working conditions were then discussed, but nothing definite was accomplished. Another meeting will be held in all probability here in a few days.

GOING SOUTH FOR WINTER.
Moncton Transcript: Hon. F. J. Sweeney, who recently underwent special treatment in the Royal Victoria Hospital at Montreal, reached home on Saturday afternoon much improved in health. Mr. Sweeney will go south for the winter months, soon after the advent of the New Year. He will be accompanied by Rev. Father Savage, rector of St. Bernard's church; ex-Conductor Edw. Watts; and Mr. Chisholm, a nephew of Father Savage.

TO CENTENARY PASTORATE.
Rev. Robert G. Fulton, pastor of the Grafton street Methodist church, Halifax, has accepted an invitation from the Centenary Methodist church to assume the pastorate commencing on July 1, 1921, at the beginning of the conference year. He will succeed Rev. H. A. Goodwin. The transfer will be subject to the approval of the board and his removal to St. John will be subject to the approval of the conference in New Brunswick and P. E. I. He is formerly of St. John and has many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his return to the city.

WISHES TO FIND-SON.
James Lemmon, of Chipman, wishes to learn the whereabouts of his son, David R. Lemmon, who left home on Sept. 4. He is eighteen years of age, weight about 180 pounds, five feet six inches in height, has blue eyes and dark brown wavy hair; fair complexion; large teeth in front one or more being filled; had his left hand broken, leaving a hard lump; uses his left hand usually; has a stoppage in his speech, and was last heard of in Plaster Rock, N. B. If anyone knows or has seen him, please write in care of Dr. A. F. Armstrong, Chipman, or to his father, James Lemmon, Chipman, N. B. Other papers are asked to copy this appeal.

AT ST. MATTHEW'S.
The Young People's Society of St. Matthew's Church held a concert in the church last evening and a very fine programme was carried out. W. H. Brooks occupied the chair. The opening number was a quartette "Old Fashioned Wife" from "Oh, Boy" sung by Miss Irene Brown, Miss Olivia Gregory, Miss Madeline Daley and Miss Lena Nickerson. The young ladies were dressed in pretty old-fashioned costumes and the effect was very pleasing. The song was arranged by J. Franer Gregory.
The balance of the programme was as follows:
Solo, Miss Elsie Nichols. Piano Solo, Miss Isabel Stevens. Solo, Mr. Harris. Readings, Miss Helen Purdy. Piano Duet, Misses Irene and Alberta Brown. Solo, Miss Olivia Gregory. Solo, E. C. Girvan. Solo, Miss Madeline Daley. Mrs. E. C. Girvan acted as accompanist. After the programme refreshments were served by members of the society.

PLAN TO BUILD FIRE STATION IN LANCASTER
Plans in connection with the rebuilding of a fire station in Fairville, and its equipment, will be discussed at a public meeting of the rate-payers of Lancaster to be held in the near future, go Councillor William Golding told a Times reporter this morning. The meeting will be held, he said, before the next meeting of the municipal council, which will take place on the third Tuesday in January. At the public meeting the type of building and the nature of apparatus will be decided upon.

Three Quick Suggestions That Have Santa's Endorsement!
For those who desire to give an extra attractive gift that will appeal to the whole family this year we briefly suggest the following. Needless to say they have the sound endorsement of Santa because they are so decidedly practical.
One brings the world's music to your home, another forever rid the house-cleaning problem of its burden, and the other ushers Monday in under a bright light.
Phonographs
We feature the McLagan Phonograph because it plays all makes of disc records, and because it represents the best cabinet value in the land today. All sizes and prices.
Eureka Cleaners
The Eureka Cleaner holds the premier place in the Vacuum field, because it has the most powerful motor in use, thus rapidly and harmlessly cleaning any rug or carpet.
1900 Washers
The 1900 Washer is either water-power or electrically operated. Thoroughly washes the clothes and at a minimum of attention. "She sits and sews while the Washer goes," says in a nutshell what the 1900 does for the modern housewife.
