LOCAL NEWS

The relief society of the Ludlow street pious church has decided to take over one of the wards at the Military hospital, West St. John, to be known as Ludlow ward.

A well known man in this city was before a court martial for supplying food to the wards at the Military hospital, West St. John, to be known as Ludlow ward.

Mrs. Rathburn of Rotherham, who is residing in the city, was painfully red on Wednesday afternoon last when she fell on the sidewalk and fractured her left arm near the wrist.

Mr. and Mrs. William Case, of 72 Exmouth street, were given a surprise last night, when a large number of friends gathered at their home and enjoyed a few games, music and refreshments. Mrs. Arthur Harris was heard in songs and recitations, while Miss Hazel Crawford proved a most acceptable pianist. On behalf of those present, Mr. Olsen presented to Mr. and Mrs. Case a handsome electric reading lamp.

Samuel Wilson was caught between two cars yesterday afternoon at Sand Point and severely injured. He was removed to the emergency hospital at West St. John, and afterwards to his home in Harding street, Fairville.

At a fortnightly meeting of the junior business boys in the Y. M. C. A. last night, Arthur Gregg gave a timely talk on "The Personal Problems of The Boys Who Work," after which a social hour was greatly enjoyed.

Three Points

Forty-two dependants of returned soldiers are in the St. James street hospital, being cared for by the military authorities, fully justifying their action in preparing the hospital to meet this need.

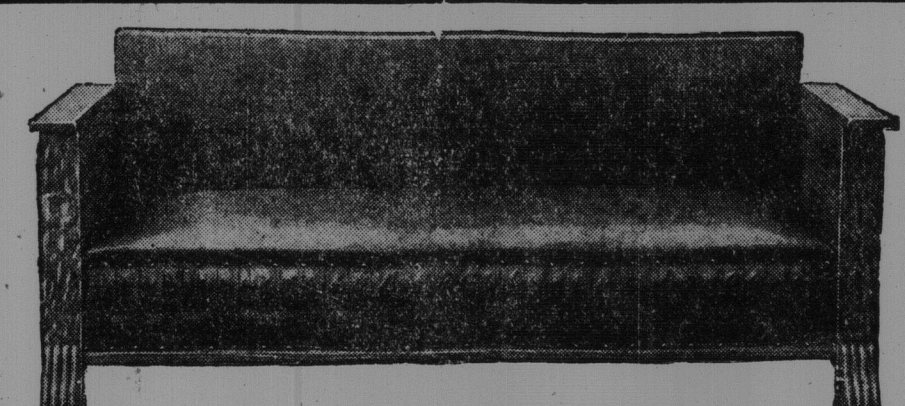

WATCH OUR PRICES

Prices on foodstuffs are bound to come down, but it isn't within reason to suppose that the entire line will be affected at once, or that any large number of items will have the prices busted at one time. But we make the prediction that there will be gradual and considerable declines in prices on many of the staple foods, and that before many moons have rolled around.

The War is Over, and so is Price Boosting. Watch our Ads. and Get the Declines as quickly as We Can Make Them Available for You
