Cox Wins Two Fast Races.

Athens, Ga., Oct. 15.—Two neck and neck finishes featured the grand circuit races here today. One was the free-for-all trot which was won in two straight heats by La Princeton, driven by Cox against Mabel Trask, piloted by Murphy. In the other a 212 trot, Murphy driving Nollie Knight, won over Geers piloting Wiki Wiki. Only two heats were necessary also in this event which was confined to three year olds.

The best time of the meeting so far was made today in the first heat of the 203 pace, when Frank Dewey driven by Cox made the mile in 2:01¾. It finally took four heats for this horse to be declared the winner.

Expelled at Topsham Park.

Topsham, Maine, Oct. 15.—Over 20,000 people attended the Topsham fair today. W. H. Goehrs, secretary of the National Trotting Association, was here and ordered the expulsion of Edward H. Woodside, of Brunswick, and a bay mare he has been racing in Maine, starting the season as a green horse under the name of Lady Sterling, and winning about $500. The mare was identified as McKinney Maid with a record of 2:13¼ by a former owner, Fred H. Vain, of Corona, (N.Y.).

Big Race Called Off.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 14.—There seems little likelihood that the much desired meeting between Sam Hildreth's Purchase and J. K. L. Ross' Sir Barton will be brought about during this season. The injury to Purchase was not in the foot, as Hildreth at first suspected, but his leg is very badly swollen and he will not race again this year.

Horse Takes Homage.

Billy Kelly, J. K. L. Ross' great three-year-old, bled in his work at Laurel, Md., this week so badly that it is doubtful whether he will go to the races again in some time. Billy Kelly worked less than three-eighths when blood came from his nostrils in profusion, and Sunde pulled up. Trainer Reidwell was unable to determine whether the bleeding was from the head or the lungs, but inasmuch as it was of light color, it is said, the blood probably came from the lungs.

THE RING.

Wide Leaves England.

New York, Oct. 14.—About two weeks from now American sport followers will have the chance to look over that wonderful piece of fighting machinery in the person of Jimmy Wilde, the most popular boxer England has had in years. Next Saturday Jimmy, accompanied by his wife and three children, will sail from Liverpool. This information comes in a cable message from Ted Lewis, Wilde's manager, to George Dwyer, the man who will attend to any business affairs that Wilde may contemplate while in America.

Mr. Dwyer imparts the information that Wilde will be seen in a bout in this city on Feb. 3.

France Wants U. S. Boxers.

The work of the A. E. F. boxing champions in France during the last twelve months has given the French boxing fans a desire to see the best American boxers in action in Paris. This is the word brought back by Captain Ben F. Steinel, of the American Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. who has just returned after overseas service.

Steinel has been officially requested by M. Theodore Vienne, owner of the world-famous Ferris wheel in Paris and prior to the war the best known boxing promoter in France, to sign up all the best available boxers for bouts in Paris. "M. Vienne wants only the best American boxers," said Steinel, "and I have been commissioned to try and induce such men as Kid Herman, Benny Leonard, Mike Gibbons, Johnny Kilbane, Jack Britton, Battling Levinsky, and others to make the trip. The French people are also very keen for Bob Martin, winner of the Interallied heavy-weight championship, to make the trip and be matched against Georges Carpentier. I am going to see Herman and Kilbane as soon as I can get my personal affairs straightened out. The French promoters want Herman to box Charlie Ledoux, the French champion, and they have Louis du Pontieu, the feather champion, lined up to go against Kilbane. Both these matches would be for the world title."

Leonard and Moore Win.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 14.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, easily out-fought Phil Bloom in a 10-round bout here last night, in the opinion of newspaper men. Apparently Leonard all but stopped his opponent in three of the rounds. It was the champion's final go at Hartford, Conn. on October 27.

Pal Moore of Memphis was given the Albany, at the end of ten rounds of fighting.

FOOTBALL.

Hampton Won From Rothersey.

The Hampton High School football aggregation was successful yesterday afternoon in defeating the Rothersey Col. Legate School team by a score of 11-6. Three twenty-minute periods constituted the time of the game and in each period both teams were confident of victory and played hard to attain that end. The game was especially neat and the members of both teams were complimented on being good clean sportsmen. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Forward, B. DeLong	Slipp

Johnstone	Reed
Schofield	Raymond
Longley	Chippman
Veiller	Seely

BASKETBALL.

Basketball at the Y. M. C. A.

It looked like old times on the Y. M. C. A. basketball court last night to see so many of the old guard in action and the spectators had an opportunity of judging the fine prospects there are before the intermediates and seniors this year.

The opening game brought together the Junior employed boys' five and the Intermediate B team and although the later won by a good margin, the play was close and the chucking very close.

The teams and score were as follows: Junior B, 12—Forwards, Potter and O'ford; centres, Hollis, Robertson and Wilson. Junior employed, 3—Forwards, Angel and Imlis; centre, Frost; defence, McBeath and Lawson.

The second game was between the seniors and intermediates. The game started off with a rush, some of the fellows forgetting it was the first game of the season. Play went from end to end till finally Seely of the Intermediate squad rolled in the first two points. Both sides missed on fouls and Copp broke the strain getting a goal. Willett of the seniors finally started scoring, netting the ball after the team had missed many close ones. Willett and Malcolm increased the score, netting goals in rapid succession. The intermediates pushed further through Seely's and Copp's good shooting.

Kerrigan replaced Willets and Margets took Pondilton's place at this stage as there were numerous substitutes on the side to relieve. Copp and Seely rolled in two more each in rapid succession the intermediates playing a fast passing game. Malcolm ended the score for the half. The score stood at this time Intermediates 25 and Old Guard 4.

The second half saw several changes in the lineup. The game continued fast. Seely for the intermediates and Willett for the seniors started the scoring. With a nice shot from under the basket, Willett and Thorne helped to pull the score up and the seniors were then playing a better combination game. The intermediates were in better condition and never let up, taking every advantage to score. Seely proved a very hard chuck, netting three in a row. The final score showed Intermediates 53 and seniors 22. A. W. newspaper decision over Jabez White of Albany, at the end of ten rounds of fighting.

ATHLETIC.

Shrubbs May Coach Oxford.

Alfred Shrubbs may be selected to coach and train the Oxford University track and cross-country teams. Negotiations to that end are reported. "Alfred has his success with the Harvard hill-and-dale men as a good recommendation."

AQUATIC.

$5,000 Stake for Race.

The stake in the Barry-Felton match for the sculling championship of the world is $5,000, and Barry is said to have put down his own money.

BASEBALL.

Moran Gets $5,000 Bonus.

The Cincinnati Bagbag Club has presented to Manager Pat Moran a check for $5,000 as a bonus for winning the National League pennant. The club also gave money to "Infielder" Hank Schrader and Outfielder Charles Seer, recruits, in addition to the small amounts they received in the distribution of the Reds' share of the world's series receipts.

LEONARD TO RISK HIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Arrangements Practically Completed for 15-Round Decision Bout With Dundee

Arrangements have practically been completed for a fifteen-round bout to a decision between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, and Johnny Dundee, his most persistent challenger. They have fought seven times but always in no-decision bouts of six, eight or ten rounds. The proposed bout will be staged in Hartford, Conn., in about three weeks.

In most of their previous meetings Leonard has been awarded the newspaper verdict, but Dundee has always claimed that he would be able to win the lightweight championship if he could induce Leonard to meet him in a bout over a distance and to a referee's decision. It appears now that he will get his long-sought opportunity at Hartford.

Joe Mulvihill, the Connecticut promoter, has been bidding for the bout for some time. Even before the recent meeting between Leonard and Dundee in

STARTING MONDAY

NEWARK, when they boxed eight of the fastest rounds that have been seen in this vicinity for some time, Mulvihill was after them to go to the Nutmeg State for a real battle. He has virtually clinched the match, and, it is reported, that only the minor details remain to be arranged. It is understood that both Leonard and Dundee will work on a percentage basis.

With a decision to be given at the end of the fifth round, if the bout lasts that long, it is a certainty that both boxers will travel at top speed from the opening gun. The fact that Dundee does not carry a real knockout punch means that he will have to depend on points to win, and it is reasonable to assume that he will force the fighting from the start.

KLOBY GAME

BUT HE WAS NO MATCH FOR DUNDEE

After going through an uninterrupted succession of victories since he returned from overseas last April, Young Kloby (Tommy Corcoran) of Lawrence met his match when he fought twelve rounds against Johnny Dundee of New York in Lawrence, Mass., on last Monday. Dundee getting the decision in easy fashion, Kloby was outwitted by fifteen points, but he outlasted the other from start to finish and never was forced to exert himself. His brilliant work won the cheers and applause of the many Kloby sympathizers in the crowd.

Corcoran held his opponent even for the first round, but was no match for him after that. Starting with the second, Dundee had it all his own way. He smashed successfully both Kloby's face and body and the other fighter stood a lot of punishment. Try as he would, Kloby could not begin to return the punishment and Dundee left the ring without scars.

In the fourth round Dundee hit Kloby in the right eye and in the following round he closed it entirely. This, combined with the effects of the repeated body blows, slowed Kloby to such an extent that the blows he managed to land on Dundee's face and body in the last half of the battle were too feeble to make any impression.

Kloby was game to the end, however, and worked hard for a knockout in the last three rounds, realizing apparently that it was only by that route that he could hope to save off defeat. He was not equal to the job, for Dundee parried and dodged the impending blows, many of them poorly directed, in admirable fashion.

The first round was a dull one, the fighters taking the full three minutes to get going. There were many clinches, but few blows of any consequence being exchanged. In the second, however,

PAULINE FREDERICK

The Emotional Bernhard of the Screen

IN ISOLA FORRESTER'S DRAMA

"THE FEAR WOMAN"

Pauline Frederick's finest cinema achievement is found in her new Goldwyn picture, "The Fear Woman." This picture is a brilliant example of the new order of art photoplay production. Not only is the play vivid, absorbing, compelling—a human document of remarkable fidelity to life—but Pauline Frederick herself declares that never before has she been enabled so fully to express tragic emotions, nor to be so freely herself with such satisfying results on the screen. She is essentially a new Pauline Frederick.
