

TOWN AND DISTRICT.

Mr. V. R. Norton, manager of Chippewa Mountain Institute, New York city, is visiting friends in town for a few days.

Over Henry & Co's 5c. Organized Medicine, 25c. Night Wakers and The Wrappers beats them all. That's the truth not fiction.

Mr. E. B. Morrey has purchased from Mr. C. R. Patience the dwelling house on Wellington street at present occupied by Mr. L. Patterson. It is which place he will remove with his family about the first of October.

The Grand Trunk fish car went through to Strathroy Thursday with a large consignment of fish, some of which were over 12 inches long. The fish are to be deposited in the river there.

Work in the deep well at Beachville has stopped for a few days for want of casing. The drill is down 5330 feet.

Mr. John Christopher has erected something new and very special in the avenue line in front of his store for the occasion of the old boys' reunion on Monday next.

Rev. J. E. Hunter, the well-known evangelist of this city, underwent an operation in Toronto on Friday last and had a fine recovery. He is now at home and is feeling better than ever.

Mr. W. A. Eastwood occupied the chair of honor at the reunion of the Old Boys, Sons of England and American Empire on Monday evening. He was elected to the chair by the members of the association.

It was decided that the reunion of the Old Boys, Sons of England and American Empire should take place on Monday morning next at 8.30, and the same place as last year.

The reunion of the Old Boys, Sons of England and American Empire will be held at the Hotel Hamilton on Monday morning next at 8.30, and the same place as last year.

Other sports will take place during the day. An open air concert will be given in the evening by the Sons of England band of Hamilton, and the "rube" band from London.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Becker, a son.

WOODSTOCK ITEMS.

It is expected that Harry Lane and V. Odium, of the C.M.R., will arrive from South Africa on Saturday.

Dr. Jones, who has resided in Woodstock for the last two years, prescribing Indian herbs, has decided to return to Hagerstown in a few days.

A couple of suspicious characters visited the city on Wednesday night, and as it was thought they were here for no good, they were shadowed until Thursday morning.

Several young men from the city got a bath in the Thames near Beachville by their canoe upsetting. It is said they did not present a very good appearance when they arrived home on Thursday.

D. D. Yale, formerly principal of the public school at Lucknow, is in the city in the interests of Court Rossfield, Canadian Order of Foresters.

The funeral of the late Gladstone Green, the young man who was drowned in the Thames near Beachville on Wednesday, and was largely attended. Interment was made in the English church cemetery here.

Donald Guthrie, K.C., inspector of the registry office, made his usual inspection of the office here on Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. Aberhart, recently appointed on the teaching staff of the North-Western Normal, was married in Miss Jessie Platt, daughter of Mr. Geo. Platt of this township.

Miss Brandy handed Wm. Barker time at H. W. Wainwright, the lawyer, has been waiting removal for three months.

HOW'S THIS? We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the past 15 years, and believe him perfectly honest in all his business transactions.

Wm. A. Eastwood occupied the chair of honor at the reunion of the Old Boys, Sons of England and American Empire on Monday evening.

It was decided that the reunion of the Old Boys, Sons of England and American Empire should take place on Monday morning next at 8.30, and the same place as last year.

The reunion of the Old Boys, Sons of England and American Empire will be held at the Hotel Hamilton on Monday morning next at 8.30, and the same place as last year.

Other sports will take place during the day. An open air concert will be given in the evening by the Sons of England band of Hamilton, and the "rube" band from London.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Becker, a son.

GREEN WAS POISONED.

Rago, Ex-Manager for Evans, Toronto, Talks of Tragedy.

THINKS IT IS A CASE OF MURDER

He Knows Nothing That Will Cast Any Light on the Front Street Mystery—What His Evidence Will Be—Mystery—Fut-Came Back From—Yale to—

Toronto, Aug. 1.—A. E. Rago, former manager of the Evans & Sons, is in Toronto in the city to-day. He will remain here until night. Mr. Rago is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

NO MARTIAL LAW.

Troops, 1,500 in Number, However, One-armed Soldiers in the Town of Shamondah—Foreigners Are Named.

Shamondah, Pa., Aug. 1.—Twelve hundred state troops were camped Shamondah, Pa., in the town, where raiders and policemen fought the bloody battle Wednesday night. All is quiet, and the indications are that so long as the militia remains, the peace of the community will not again be broken.

Ten thousands of idle men and boys in this vicinity have been gathering in large numbers and marching from place to place, but not toward their destinations yesterday, and the authorities consequently had little or nothing to do.

The major portion of the population here is made up of foreigners, and as a rule, they kept close to their homes during the day. It is claimed by the citizens and the fact that the foreign element was responsible for the trouble. One of the popular belief Shamondah is not under martial law.

The mine workers are greatly incensed over the calling out of the troops. They assert that the action was entirely unnecessary and is an unjustifiable expense on the part of the government.

Of the twenty or thirty persons who were beaten with clubs or struck by bullets during Wednesday night's rioting, one man, James H. Fisher, died last night at 10 o'clock. Most of the wounded strikers claim that they were merely onlookers.

The district attorney and the sheriff are prosecuting an investigation with a view of placing under arrest those who participated in the riot.

President Mitchell rejoined. Charleston, Aug. 1.—President John Mitchell has been engaged a coal company that blames the strike for its inability to fill contracts. Overseas miners on part of strikers is prohibited.

MISS ANY WILSON. Has Not Yet Been Found—Local Constable Also Prohibited Assistance.

Hamilton, Aug. 1.—High Constable Tavis has asked the Attorney-General's Department to send a provincial detective here to work on the case of Miss Any Wilson, a 13-year-old girl who mysteriously disappeared from here. The girl disappeared while her mother was on a visit to a neighbor less than 100 yards away in her room, and a rather strange document, to the effect that she expected to be kidnapped, and was published at the time.

Frank Collins, editor of the Dundas state that they saw her Dundas last week, 6 o'clock. The other side, the girl was with Miss Wilson. Both persons know Miss Wilson well.

It has been learned that Miss Wilson has been in Toronto in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Mr. Rago expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day in the case of the front street mystery. He is supposed to be the man who was in the city last night in a position to see what happened in the front street mystery.

Fancy White Plume Celery

Fresh daily from Kalamazoo.

TRY IT—

Fred. Dutton's

Phone 62 King st. west.

A LESSON IN TILLAGE.

How to Keep Moisture in the Soil—The Time to Plow.

The texture or physical condition of the soil is nearly always more important than its mere richness in plant food. Every farmer knows or should know that a hard and lumpy soil will not grow good crops, no matter how much plant food it may contain.

A clay soil which has been ploughed for any number of years, may be so seriously injured by its injudicious ploughing in a wet time, as to ruin it for the growing of any crop for two or three years.

The injury lies in the modification of its physical texture, not in the lessening of its fertility. A sandy soil may be seriously injured for the same reason, but the injury is not so permanent, and the soil recovers more quickly its moisture, and it becomes, eventually, but in bright sunny weather.

A finely divided, mellow, friable soil is more productive than a hard lumpy soil of the same chemical composition. Why? Because it holds and retains the moisture; it holds more air; it promotes fertility; it hastens the decomposition of the mineral elements.

It has less variable extremes of temperature, and it allows a better root hold to the plant. In all these and other ways the mellowness of the soil renders the plant food more available, and affords a congenial and comfortable place in which the plant may grow.

It is useless to apply commercial fertilizers to lands which are not in good physical condition. How, then, can the texture of lands be improved? By judicious ploughing and tillage, and by the use of underdrains, and subsoils, applications of lime, salt, and occupation of crop to soil.

A number of experiments have been carried out at our own Experiment Station, as well as at Ithaca, N.Y., and the results point generally to the necessity of preserving moisture in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

Free water within eighteen inches of the surface of the soil is injurious to the growth of cotton plants. Capillary water, that is, water retained in the soil, the first step towards which is to put the soil in such physical condition that it will be pervious to water; that is, that it will afford a reservoir for it.

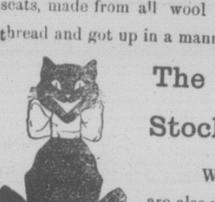

THE Hustling Boy

The average boy is a hustler at meal times. He hustles to get outside of everything within reach until the buttons on his pants are strained.

On the play ground he hustles into all sorts of fun and it becomes a question how long the seams of his pants will stand. He hustles over fences, up and down trees and by the time he is hustled to bed at night it makes the average pair of boy's pants look sick. The Lion brand is made for just such boys. They have double knees and double seats, made from all wool cloth, sewn with strong linen thread and got up in a manner not equalled on the market.

The Black Cat Brand Stockings

With triple knees, heels and toes are also made for the romping boys and girls. See them at once. We are sole agents for these two famous brands. If you have not tried them try them now.

JAS. P. BOLES, The Clothing Hustler.

well-worked soil, is the direct source of their supply and should by all means be conserved. Capillary water will be weak, while in finer contact soils it will be strong. But large number of sorrowing friends and relatives who receive Jno. Murray's Catarrh Remedy, H. H. McCarty, James McWilliams and J. G. Richards, son after a short prayer at the family home, on the eighth concession, the carriage proceeded to the seventh Methodist church, where the seventh funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. B. Moyer, of Belmont, Thomsford. Interment was made at the seventh line cemetery, across the street from the church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Alex. Henderson, John Henderson, Eli Bough, and E. McLeod. Besides her sorrow-stricken husband, Mrs. Day leaves a young family of three girls and a boy.

REVOLUTION IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

Since the introduction into Newfoundland of the Inhaler Remedy, "Catarrhose," the treatment of catarrhal diseases has been entirely revolutionized. The old time snuff and internal medicine has been cast aside and every one is inhaling Catarrhose. It clears the head and throat in two minutes, and is very agreeable and pleasant to use. Catarrhose is a wonderful cure for coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Lung Troubles and Hoarseness. It relieves quickly and cures permanently. We advise our readers to try Catarrhose at once. Price $1.00, trial size 25c, Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont. Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Nutternut Pills.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY.

$59.85 INGRESSOL. To SAN FRANCISCO and LOS ANGELES, CAL., and return. Going and returning via Detroit and direct United States Lines.

$70.25 INGRESSOL. To SAN FRANCISCO and LOS ANGELES, CAL., and return. Going via Detroit and direct U.S. Lines, returning via Vancouver and Ore. Pac. Tickets good going July 25th, Aug. 1st to 31st inclusive, valid for return until September 30th, 1908. Tickets and full particulars from your nearest Canadian Pacific Agent or A. E. Notman, Asst. General Passenger Agent, 1 King Street East, Toronto. Jas. Knight, Agent. Ingressol.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound

Is successfully used monthly by over 100,000 ladies. It is a safe, reliable, and effective remedy for all cases of Catarrh, Leucorrhoea,