Merely a Foolish Panic.

San Francisco, June 24.-The financ'a situation here causes little excitement, while at the savings, Union and German banks the run has been going on since morning. The proceeding is generally considered foolish. At Hibernia this norning the savings bank paid out $50, 000 During the rush interviews with bank presidents show they regard the situation with composure. James G air said it was a good thing for the anks, because depositors who draw out lose both interest and dividend, the lat ter of which would have been paid next month. The general opinion among them is that there is absolutely no reason for uneasiness.

Hoffman, who was formerly a liquor dealer years ago. Nothing was heard from him until about five years ago when his mother received a telegram announcing his | £100. death in a railway wreck in the far west. Mrs. Hoffman wore mourning for a year and then married her present husband. Hoffman arrived in Rahway on Thursday evening and found out what had happened during his absence. He then went to Herrmes' home and demanded his wife and 11-year-old boy. She refused to go and scolded him most bitterly for his desertion of her. The stormy interview was interrupted by the arrival of Mr. Herrmes, who ejected Mr. Hoffman from the house. Mr. Hoffman declined to give any explanation of his long absence, saying he had been out west mining and had come home wealthy to claim his wife and child. Mrs. Herrmes declares she will have nothing to do with her first husband. Hoffman has engaged wife's marriage to Herrmes.

Dr. McGlynn's Future.

New York, June 26.-Rev. Dr. Patrick F. McSweeny, a personal friend of Dr. Edward McGlynn, who returned from Rome yesterday on the Werra, said in an interview: "Dr. McGlynn went to Rome because he was invited to do so. He went there as any good loyal priest would go on such an invitation to the pope would have a talk with him. I don't know whether Dr. McGlynn will be restored to his old parish, or whether he would wish to go if it were offered him. Fort. Scott, Kas., June 26 .- At 9:25 this morning, without a moment's warning, the Tremont House, a four-story brick structure, collapsed, burying nearly 75 people in the debris. The body of a young woman has been recovered. Three men were taken out shortly after noon, but their injuries are such that their deaths are expected in a few hours. The fire department and hundreds of citizens are at work among the broken timbers, and are stimulated in their efforts of rescue by cries and moans of the wounded people beneath the mass of debris. The ground floor of the hotel was occupied by stores, many of which were filled with customers. It is not known now how many people are beneath the ruins, but it is believed the death list will reach over twenty.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 26 .- Chief Justice Clement in the city court of Brooklyn to-day handed down a decision in the suit brought by Col. Wm. Sinn, the well known theatrical manager and lessee of the Park theatre, who sought to have his marriage with Cora Tanner, the actress, annulled on the ground that she was already the wife of Dr. Fred Farlin of Rochester at the time she married the colonel. Justice Clement decided in favor of the actress, and orders Col. Sinn to pay the costs of the action.
