Chicago, July 23.—It is current rumon to-night that President Cleveland has tendered to ex-Senator Lyman Trumbull an appointment as member of the commission of arbitration, which is to investi gate the Pullman labor strike. Judge Trumbull is in Saginaw, Mich., and has not yet confirmed the rumor. For five years Judge Trumbull, during the critical periods of national and state history, was justice of the supreme court of Illinois. Ranking very high among the jurists of the west, has reputation extended to the east, and his senatorial career of eighteen years fixed his national reputation. He was distinguished among the political leaders, who in 1872 broke away from the old Republican party, entered its liberal ranks and finally became identified with the Democrats. As the colleague of Douglas and the associate of Lincoln, participated in congress in national affairs during the momentous years of the nation's history. He has lived of late retired from politics.
