MADE OF HORSEFLESH

And Passed off as Beef or Pork-Lots of Money in the Business.

BERLIN, Jan. 31.—Two large consignments of horseflesh sausages have been seized by the police in Berlin railway stations just as they were on the point of starting for the Rhineland ander false colors. Various parcels of the stuff were addressed to Dortmund, Strassbueg and Frankfurt, and one lot of 100 pounds was bound for the cantoon of the Fifteeenth Uhlan Regiment in Scarburg. It is believed that the traffic thus discovered has been carried on wholesale and comprehensive investigations are being made with the object of tracking down all implicated in it. Horseflesh sausage may even be legally sold if its true nature is disclosed, but in this instance, of course, it has been passed off as beef or pork. With the prices of butcher's meat at their present level the temption to embark on fraudulent trade of this kind is indeed great.

Epidemic Breaks Out Afresh, With a Record of 407 New Cases in CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 31.—The scarlet fever epidemic, which was said by the officials of the Health Department to be lessening, has broken out with re-newed violence. All records were broken today when 407 new cases were vaal elections under the new constitution.

It is not expected that the polling will be completed for more than a month but there are 120 candidates in the field and in one instance five candidates are fighting for the same seat.

The feature of the election will be the finessing of the parties to gain an advantage. The multiplicity of the candidates is likely to favor the Progressives—that is the mining interests—whose chances are daily improving. Not long ago there were indications of a hopeless Progressive defeat, but up to the present time a strong minority at least is expected.

The Nationalists—the Colonial, British and British Colonials favoring an independent policy—will probably give the Het Volk (Boer party) an advantage by splitting the British vote.

Sir A. Woole-Sampson declared not long ago that if the British lost the election the result would be due to the "political national scouts, who are opposing their own side." Their leader, Sir Richard Solomon's entry in the lists is awaited with interest. The Progressive leaders are determined not to join the coalition. Unless therefore he unreservedly throws in his lot with the Progressives he must be content to lead an attenuated National party to the ruin of his political future or join Hot Volk.

Speaking at Boksburg Sir George Farrar denounced the policy of the Liberal Government as "a policy which has done its utmost to destroy the prosperity of the Transvaal by making it a cockpit for the fighting out of the misstatements and falsehoods uttered during the general election in Great Britain."

Portland is no place to get a dramatic start; I appreciate that.

"I have been here since a year ago last summer, when my husband left me stranded. If only I could in some way raise money enough to take me where my talents could be directed in the line I wish I would be happy."

Her debts contracted during her stay of twenty months in Portland and vicinity amount to about $600, she said, though a much less amount would help her to get established in New York, as some of her creditors have assured her she may take her own good time in which to pay them.

Her delusions, if they are such, are of a mild form, and it is believed that under proper restraint and care she could be thoroughly restored to health and mental strength. She says that when her husband last wrote to her he was in Chicago, as president of an irrigation company.
