PREPARING FOR BIG CONVENTION

The dentists of the city are preparing for a monster convention to be held in this city July 13 and 14. Members of the profession from all parts of the Maritime Provinces are expected to be in attendance and a big time is assured. Already the committees having the matter in hand are hard at work preparing the programme, definite announcement of which is expected shortly.

Dr. Stanley Smith, vice president of the Dental Association, told The Star last night that the convention of this summer would probably surpass any of former years. A number of clinics are being arranged and will be given by those prominently identified with the profession throughout the provinces. The president of the association is Dr. Daly of Sussex.

SHE CALLED FARNUM HER "NEW BEAU"

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 18.—The flow of testimony adduced by the defense in the suit for separation brought by Katherine Clemons Gould against her husband, Howard Gould, kept edging more and more today toward Dustin Farnum, the actor, whose broad shoulders and mop of curly hair have become a familiar figure in the case. There was in addition further iteration by servants and personal attendants that Mrs. Gould was repeatedly seen by them under the influence of liquor and that when she had been drinking, as they alleged on the stand, she changed from a charming, affable woman to a creature of whim and caprice, ill-tempered, not nice in her choice of language, overbearing, quarrelsome.

Mrs. Gould's one-time personal valet swore that at one time he served his mistress two quarts of Manhattan cocktails in addition to the wines and liquors which he said she drank at table. In cross-examining the witness, Clarence J. Shearn, for Mrs. Gould, strove always to prove either that they had a personal grudge against her or that they were under obligations to Mr. Gould.

Endearing epithets twice embellished the testimony. John H. Kibball, an oil and paint dealer, who said he had known Mr. Gould for eighteen years, testified that he went to a performance of "The Virginian" in August, 1906, with Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Sells and the Goulds at the Academy of Music in this city and that Dustin Farnum, the star in the play, joined the party outside the playhouse after the performance and spoke to Mrs. Gould. She smiled, the witness testified, and said to the witness, "this is my new beau."

John Flynn, who said he had been employed by Mrs. Gould as a chauffeur, and that he had often driven her to meet Farnum after the play, testified that on one occasion that the automobile with Mrs. Gould in it was waiting for Mr. Farnum at the Hotel Somerset two men turned to the actor as he came out of the hotel door and asked him whose automobile was waiting.

"Oh," said Farnum laughing, "Flynn testified that is my new one."

May Elizabeth Harrison, a fresh-cheeked looking girl, who said she was a floor clerk in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia, prefaced her testimony with the explanation that it was her first appearance in court. She had been impelled by her conscience, she said, to tell what she had seen at the hotel. Finally she wrote a letter to Mr. Gould.

"I said in the letter," she testified, "in obedience to the golden rule, I write to you to help you if you are in trouble, or something like that."

Mrs. Gould occupied apartments on the floor where she was stationed in September, 1906, the witness went on, and one morning, she said, she saw a man come out of Mrs. Gould's rooms about 7:30 and take the elevator. She noticed that he was the only passenger in the car and that the dial registered 14th floor when the car stopped. She described the man as tall, with dark, bushy hair and wearing a soft hat and a long coat.

A man called at a grammar school in a large city to see one of the teachers and, uncertain just which was the room he wanted, noted the bell buttons in the main corridor. He pressed one of them. His surprise was great when soon after the sound of the gong children and teachers fled forth from the various rooms, all in orderly line and with no excitement of crowding. The visitor had pressed the button which called for the fire alarm drill practice.

FIRST OF THE SEASON TODAY

Two Church Picnics Take Place

WESTFIELD CHOSEN

Majority of the City Churches to Go There for Annual Outing

Today the season for picnics and outings opens with Westfield Beach as the favorite resort. Several picnics are scheduled for today, among which are those of St. David's Sunday school at Westfield, and Leinster street Baptist Sunday school at Lakeside.

As the St. David's outing is for the entertainment of the school, congregation and friends no tickets are sold and expenses are met by contribution. Trains leave at 8:25 a. m. and 1:10 p. m.

About two hundred pleasure seekers are expected to take advantage of the Leinster street Baptist church outing at Lakeside, where refreshments will be served and games, sports, etc., indulged in by the young folks.

On Saturday, the 26th inst., Trinity church will hold their annual Sunday school outing at Westfield Beach. Should the day prove fine it will be a banner one in the history of the church, as the new pavilion at the track will be opened, and besides sports, games, etc., the picnickers will see what promises to be a very interesting motor boat race under the auspices of the Westfield Outing Association.

The beach will be a scene of activity and life on July 3rd, when the parents, scholars and teachers of Main street Baptist Sunday school hold their annual picnic. The appetites of the children will be amply satisfied at the hands of the teachers and others, after which games, races and other sports will be indulged in.

St. John's Presbyterian Sunday school hold their picnic on Saturday, July 10th, at Westfield, weather permitting. Refreshments, games, etc., will be in order, also the second series of motor boat races on the river.

St. James Episcopal Sunday school has arranged to hold its annual outing on Tuesday, July 20th at Westfield also, and the managing committee are finalizing the details regarding amusements, refreshments, etc.

Thursday, July 22nd, picnickers of Stone Church Sunday school will occupy the grounds.

The managing committee promise a splendid programme of races, jumps, games and other branches of sport, while the ladies will look after the refreshments.

GEORGE GREEN DIES AT HIS HOME HERE

The death occurred last evening of George Green, 250 Millidge avenue after only a short illness.

Mr. Green was taken ill on the 8th inst. with paralysis and up to yesterday afternoon a second attack seized him which proved more than his constitution could endure and he passed away about 8 p. m.

Sixty-eight years ago Mr. Green was born in Prince Edward Island, where he lived until 31 years old, when he moved to this city.

He was for 35 years engaged in the first wife being Mary Ann Compton of P. E. I., by whom he had three sons, Frank C. and Alfred H. of Nelson, B. C. and Charles E. of St. John. In 1908 Mr. Green was married to Miss Margaret Taylor of Prince Edward Island, who, with his sons, remains to mourn their loss.

Three brothers, Major H. of St. John, Wellington of Grand Lake and James Warburton of P. E. I. and two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Craig of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Yeston of Brooklyn, New York, also survive.

Mr. Green was a member of St. Luke's church and a strong adherent to the temperance cause. He ran several times for a seat at the Common Council board and while unsuccessful polled a very heavy vote.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 3 p. m. from his late residence to St. Luke's church, where service at 8:15 will be conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim.

Had Given up All Hope of Living. Heart Trouble was Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Gratton, N. B., writes:—"In the year 1905 I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law."

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better, but on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good.' I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' His said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and have not been sick since then."

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now."

Price 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
