AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Charles Hildreth and at the music store of H. A. Hildreth.]

JULY 11.—An afternoon of pleasure was enjoyed by the parents and friends of the music pupils of Miss Sleep on Friday, at her home on Victoria street. The performance was mostly quite small but acquitted themselves very creditably, fully endorsing the already well known fact that Miss Sleep is a popular and very painstaking teacher.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. A. R. Dickey entertained a merry little party of the Misses Dickey's young friends.

The corner stone of the new baptist church was well and truly laid on Friday afternoon, by Miss Anne Hickman, in the presence of a very large gathering of spectators. Dr. Steele, Rev. S. McC. Black, editor of the Messenger and Visitor, St. John, Rev. J. H. McDonald who composed a special hymn for the occasion, Rev. Mr. Williams pastor of the presbyterian church, assisted with the imposing ceremony. Among the contents of the box placed beneath the stone for safe keeping for coming generations was the illustrated edition of PROGRESS. An observer might readily conclude from what they saw and heard on the occasion that the new and costly edifice being erected will hardly share the fate of its veteran predecessor, moved off to a side street to be converted into an opera house, but who can foretell the future greatness of Christianity.

Miss Maud Tighe left on Thursday to visit friends in Quebec for several weeks.

Miss Helen Gass goes to Antigonish on Thursday to spend her vacation with relatives.

Miss Mabel Ayer, of Sackville, was among the visitors in town last week.

Miss Sadie Foster arrived from San Francisco, Cal., last week to pay a most welcome visit to her sister Mrs. S. F. Taylor.

The announcement of the death of Mr. John Ross, Truro, half brother of Mr. T. Dunlap was received here with much regret and much sympathy is expressed for the Misses Ross who have many friends in town. Mr. Dunlap went to Truro to be present at the funeral.

Miss Black of St. John is the guest of Mrs. Sherman Rogers, Rupert Street.

Rev. Foster Almon of Halifax, addressed the members of the C. W. M. A. on Friday evening. He was the guest of Rev. Mr. Harris while in town.

Miss Beattie Munro has gone to spend a few months in the Annapolis valley, she left on Saturday via St. John, where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Miss Allison, of Sackville, visited Mrs. Ketchum on Thursday.

The season is surely at hand when society waxes and wanes in the most uncontrollable manner, a here today and a there tomorrow style of doing that will last till autumn black robe and the shoulder of the present fascination. Tudiash shore, being nearest, is the central point just now.

A Beautiful Gown.

It is a frequent experience with ladies that when the dress is bought with care, and made with taste, some indefinable thing is lacking to give it the perfect touch of beauty. It is the sup. lying of this that has made universally esteemed. Priestley's Black Dress Goods, made in Henriettes, Cape Cloths, etc., are such a cunning and effective blend of silk and wool that when the dress is made it drapes in perfect gracefulness, giving to the figure that charm without which the costliest dress that Worth ever made is a mere dress.
