A couple of weeks ago the crew of the schooner Lizzie Dyer were taken from the derelict schooner by a steamer from Yarmouth and landed safely at Yarmouth. The schooner was reported a couple of days ago to be in the ocean, a fair prize, but a great danger to navigation. For the past ten days the steamer Mesenger and Harbinger have been scouring the seas outside of Yarmouth for the derelict vessel, but failing to find it, they returned to Yarmouth Wednesday, and have abandoned the search. It is thought that the vessel has been blown out into the Atlantic, for there are no reports of her wreckage along the shore, and being loaded with lumber she would not go to the bottom.

ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY.

Rev. L. G. Macneill's Resignation--
Rev. A. S. Morton Nominated for Pine Hill.

The presbytery of St. John met in St. Andrew's church school room Tuesday, Moderator McLeod in the chair. A call was extended to Rev. Donald Stewart, of St. Martin's, to accept the charge of Morwood, Brookville. The reverend gentleman, who was present, accepted the call, and it was agreed to transact at the end of January.

In the report of the finance committee, which showed a balance of $233 was received, and a satisfactory statement of the traveling expense fund was subsequently read.

The next business on the docket was the consideration of the acceptance of the resignation of the Rev. L. G. Macneill. The resignation of St. Andrew's formally tendered his resignation. Judge Forbes, on behalf of the session, voiced the regret that was felt on the subject and consented to the course proposed.

Doctor Fraser moved and the Rev. Mr. Macneill's resignation be accepted. Both gentlemen expressed in feeling terms the esteem in which the retiring pastor was held. Rev. Mr. Fotheringham followed on the same lines. A committee was appointed to receive the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Macneill, and the motion of Doctor Fraser was carried. It was ordered that Rev. Mr. Robertson, of Milltown, should preach in St. Andrew's the first Sunday in February, and declare the pulpit vacant. The Rev. Dr. Fraser, of St. Stephen's church, was appointed moderator of the session during the vacancy.

On motion of Doctor Fotheringham, seconded by Judge Stevens, the action of St. Andrew's was adopted for an injunction to restrain the cutting of timber on certain lands. Chapman & Ellye presented the application and Attorney-General Pugsley, for the session, seconded the motion. The committee, consisting of Rev. J. Ross, Rev. J. H. Anderson and Rev. G. D. Ireland, was appointed to investigate the matter and ascertain the cause of the session during the vacancy.

ALBERT COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

A Large Amount of Impatient Business Was Dealt With Tuesday.

The regular monthly session of the St. John equity court was opened Tuesday morning by Judge Barker. Attorney-General Pugsley, K. C., moved for the passing of the accounts in the estate of James Brown. An order was granted to that effect.

The case of Johnson vs. Hazen was again allowed to stand over. The case of Henry vs. Hanson was also stood over. In the matter of James William Kenzie and Stella May Kenzie, infants, a petition was presented by J. Douglas Hazen to amend and revoke the order of the court in the matter of the guardianship of the infants, who are suing for the cost of building by day work, alleging the defendants' refusal to pay the cost of the building.

The amendment moved was the addition of further real estate which was omitted from the former petition. An order to amend was granted.

In the matter of Martha Ethel Baird and Gordon Roy Baird, infants, a petition was presented by the guardians, John Mitchell and Charles H. Peters, asking for an allowance for each of the infants, who are entitled to the real estate of their deceased parents. A. P. Barnhill presented the petition. An order was granted.

In the matter of Thomas L. Bourke, who had been found of insane mind by a commission of lunacy, Ellen Bourke, M. A. Finn and Daniel Mullin, the committee having in charge the estate of Thomas L. Bourke, petitioned for a superintendence of the commission of lunacy, on the ground that Thomas L. Bourke is now physically sane and is able to manage his own affairs. Geo. E. Coster read the petition and affidavits of Dr. T. D. Walker and Dr. J. P. McInerney to the effect that Thomas L. Bourke was mentally sound. The court considered.

In the case of Patterson vs. Patterson, an application was made for an injunction to restrain the cutting of timber on certain lands. Chapman & Ellye presented the application and Attorney-General Pugsley, for the session, seconded the motion. The committee, consisting of Rev. J. Ross, Rev. J. H. Anderson and Rev. G. D. Ireland, was appointed to investigate the matter and ascertain the cause of the session during the vacancy.
