General Manager of Bank Tells of Steps Taken in the Case—How First Trouble Came to His Attention.

The Case to Forme University of the first Trouble With Customers.

Re-examined by Mr. Teed, witness said the first twouble he had spoken of was in connection with the customers.

Clark's going away with witness' knowledge, he said, was not to evade any criminal responsibility, but Clark had stated that if he saw certain customers he could save the bank a considerable loss. It was in connection with the sale of bonds or securities, and they went to New York.

To Mr. Fowler, Mr. Kessen said he had not discharged Clark, nor had Clark resigned, but witness had told him before going away that he (Clark) had properly lost his position.

The defendant was asked if he had any statement to make and replied, "I have no
