NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

An old colored woman, at Astoria, N. Y., went to the other world by the heretofore route last Sunday.

A club of farmers in Chesterfield, Ill., takes $100 worth of magazines and newspapers annually.

In Carthage, Ill., boys under the age of 16 are, by a city ordinance recently passed, prohibited from chewing tobacco.

It is rather puzzling to read that the Adventists of Westport, N. J., are building a substantial meeting-house.

At a concert lately given in Newark, N. H., the attractions were the Cantata of "Esther" and a Free Oyster Supper.

A couple in Kansas lately paid their marriage fee in butter. Somebody suggests that they belonged to the creme de creme.

For selling a blind man a pair of boots of different numbers, Thomas McDermott of Providence, R. I., will languish in jail for six days.

The daily exports of Lexington, Scott County, Ind., are stated to be five carloads of milk. The daily imports are ten barrels of whiskey.

The Roman Catholics of Boston have subscribed $70,000 for a new Episcopal residence, which will be in keeping with their magnificent Cathedral.

The latest zoological curiosity is reported from Richmond, Va.—a dog with two tails! One of them, however, was an extra one, and the dog carried it in his mouth.

A California paper, having obtained a new subscriber, records the startling fact in a half-column article, headed, "Still another." Our course followed by the people.

Club life in Boston appears to have more advocates now than ever. Almost all the young gentlemen there belong to a club, and wives and mothers and sweethearts are becoming very disconsolate.

John Morrissey has leased the Saratoga trotting track for a term of five years, and will have supreme control of the grounds from that length of time. The first meeting is fixed for the 25th of July.

A disconsolate gentleman in Chicago advertises that the thief who stole his well-bucket and rope will oblige him by coming and taking the well, for which he has no use.

Mrs. Ellen Babo, of Esport, Me., has been appointed a Justice—not one of your common Justices of the Peace, but a high and mighty Justice of the Peace and the Quorum.

Mrs. McCrum of Kalamazoo has twins, but she isn't proud, for one of them weighs only 1 lb. 10 oz., and the other only 1 lb. 8 oz. This is a case in which the ounce is of importance.

The latest bilious dog is in Sterling, Mass. He refuses comfort for the death of the family horse, sleeps in the snow upon the larger quadruped's grave, and goes heretically without his victims.

Two thousand dollars is a pretty high price to pay for a single rooster. That is what Mr. Davis of Portland has just given to Mr. Batcher for a black Spanish cock—considered the best game bird in the country.

A Michigan jury have awarded $1,000 damages to the widow of a man who, having been made drunk, was subsequently found frozen to death. The man who sold him the liquor is to pay the damages.

The Chicago papers get up the most deceptive heads. Under a Tribune caption "It is a Chicago Caption," we expected to find something about getting drunk, but the article only referred to "bouncing" a man in a beer saloon.

The Librarian of the Worcester Public Library says in his Annual Report that the Sunday opening is doing a great deal for the intellectual improvement of the community, and raising the moral tone of the community.

George Hatch is engaged to Newark, N. H. He was wanted to marry a widow named Mary J. Johnson, he obtained possession of some $5,000 of her money Thursday, since when he has not been seen.

In Hoboken, N. Y., Saturday evening, David Bowie was shot and dangerously wounded by Constable Johnston. Citizens who saw the shooting set upon John B. and hit him about the head, fatally injuring him. No arrests.

At Beaver Meadow, Pa., Nell McBride, a miner, was murdered Saturday evening. He leaves a wife and four children. It is supposed that an Irishman about 20 years old, named Nell Paul, who escaped, is the murderer.

This is highly colored: "The Illinois are building," says a Wisconsin editor. "You Illinois Sates," responds one of his readers. "You violet truth," politely replies the editor, and both are given over to blue devils.

The destruction or stealing of books containing only the record of taxes assessed and collected for important street improvements in Brooklyn, N. Y., together with a dedication of over fifty thousand dollars in the accounts of Street Commissioner Turey, are fully confirmed.

A Christmas party was held Saturday night at the house of John Barry, Highland district, Boston, at which Lawrence Norton, aged 25, was fatally stabbed and found dying in the street early Sunday morning. Five men and two women, including Barry, have been arrested on suspicion of connection with the homicide.

The woman's temperance movement is under way in Brooklyn, N. Y., and a committee was appointed Friday to importune the Legislature for amendments to the excise law.

The Superintendent of the South Side Long Island Railroad has been requested to issue orders refusing to receive as freight any intoxicating liquors.

In the recent contest for the Speakership of the lower House of Representatives some very amusing scenes occurred. Resolutions in rhyme, of which the following is a fair sample, were constantly offered, and, of course, ruled out of order, the voting going on meanwhile:

That Mr. Dixon and Mr. Garfield
And who drink the largest glass
Should occupy the Speaker's chair.

The Interior Department at Washington believes the statements regarding the difficulties with the Sioux Indians greatly exaggerated. The principal cause of hostilities is the failure of the Department to furnish the tribes who have gone on the war path with the accustomed supplies, but this was due to the delay of Congress to make the necessary appropriations.

The delegates from Wyoming Territory, Mr. Steele, who is reported as in daily communication with the Secretary of the Interior, are reported as well developed benevolence—has one hundred and sixty-four thousand dollars invested in the shares of a Western railway.
