

Senior Year.

FIRST TERM.—Arithmetic, Hamblin Smith's, completed. Geometry, Books II, III and IV. Latin, Virgil, Book I, and Collar's Practical Latin Composition, also Cicero's 1st Oration against Catiline. Greek, Xenophon, Book I., selected chapters, also Greek Composition. French, Otto's Grammar. English Composition, and Word Analysis continued, and study of Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar. Grecian History, (Myers and Allen) Essays monthly. Manual Training.

SECOND TERM.—Algebra, review, selected chapters. Quadratics begun. Latin, Cicero's 2nd Oration against Catiline, Collar's Composition continued. Greek, Xenophon's Anabasis, Book I. completed, Book II. begun, Greek Composition. Otto's Grammar completed, La Belle Nivernaise. English, Shaw's English Literature, (selections). Roman History, (Myers and Allen). Essays monthly. Manual Training.

THIRD TERM.—Algebra, Quadratics completed. Xenophon, Book II. completed, Greek Composition, continued. Roman History, completed. French, La Belle Nivernaise. Natural Philosophy, Gage's Introduction. Graduating Essay. Course of Reading. Macaulay's Essay on Lord Clive, Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. Manual Training.

NOTE.—Those taking Greek need not take French. Those taking French need not take Greek. Manual Training is not insisted on as requisite for Matriculation, but students are recommended to take it.