

said, who shall by law be exempt from serving in the Militia of this Province or as a Constable or Surveyor or Overseer of Roads therein, and no person who shall have once served in any of the Offices aforesaid shall be liable to be again appointed to, or serve in the same office, within three years thereafter, unless he shall consent thereto.

XV. And be it further enacted, that this act shall continue in force until the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and and no longer.