

Shall, for each and every such offence, incur a penalty of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars, and shall, in addition thereto, pay double tolls on all articles wholly or in part omitted from any report made by him in pursuance of these regulations. O. C., Oct. 6, 1881. Con. O. C. Oct. 26, 1889, sec. 37, 38.

STURGEON LAKE TO PIGEON LAKE.

Sec. 47. The owner or owners or persons in charge of any raft or parcel of timber of any description shall, before removing the same from the mouth of the river in Pigeon Lake or the bay above the lock in Sturgeon Lake, subscribe and deliver to the lock-master or other officer duly appointed, as the case may be, a report in duplicate, showing the number of pieces of each description of timber, saw-logs or any other description of timber so passed, and shall pay the lock dues thereon (the same being assessed in conformity with the schedule hereunder written), or secure the same to the satisfaction of the lock-master or other person appointed to collect dues; on failure to comply with this regulation such owner or person in charge shall incur a penalty of not less than twenty dollars and not more than two hundred dollars, in addition to double the amount of dues which would otherwise be payable on any raft or parcel of timber of any description passing such lock without such acknowledgment.

Sec. 48. The collector of lock dues, or any person or persons duly authorized by him in that behalf, shall, at all hours during the day, have free access and full power and permission to enter and remain as long as he or they may see fit upon any raft or parcel of timber, for the purpose of examining the same, and every facility shall be afforded him or them for ascertaining the number of cribs or the number of pieces of any description of timber of which the same is composed; and any person obstructing the collector of lock dues, lock-master or other person duly authorized as aforesaid, in the execution of his duty, shall incur a penalty of not less than fifty dollars and not more than two hundred dollars.

Sec. 49. It shall be competent for the collector of lock dues, his deputy or deputies, assistant or assistants, or persons duly authorized by him, to enter upon, seize and detain, at the risk, costs and charges of the owner or owners thereof, any raft or parcel of timber which shall have been moved away from the bay above the canal race in Sturgeon Lake, or the mouth of the river in Pigeon Lake, without the lock dues therefor, the amount awarded for damages, or the fines and penalties, if any, being first paid or secured to his or their satisfaction; and any and every person obstructing the collector of lock dues, or other person or persons duly authorized as aforesaid, in the execution of his or their duty, shall incur a penalty of not less than twenty dollars and not more than two hundred dollars.

Sec. 50. Rafts, cribs and every description of timber shall be held liable for the dues, damages and penalties imposed under these regulations; and the lock-master, or other duly appointed officer, is hereby authorized and required to seize and detain any such raft, crib or parcel of timber, until payment of such dues, damages or penalties is made, or until the owner or person or persons in charge shall have given satisfactory security
