

The area covered by this map is approximately 5,433 square miles. About 1,612 square miles are timbered. About 3,821 square miles have been burned over within recent years. Some of the burned areas are treeless; others bear very young trees or small clumps of medium-sized trees.