

THE YEAR IN PICTURES

An 11-day hunger strike by Randy Robinson and 10 others brought the world's attention to the plight of Anatoly Scharansky.
Gary Hershorn

800 Yorkites showed up February 9 at York's rally against the cutbacks.
Gary Hershorn

President H. Ian MacDonald was the lone scapegoat at the February 9 rally.
Gary Hershorn

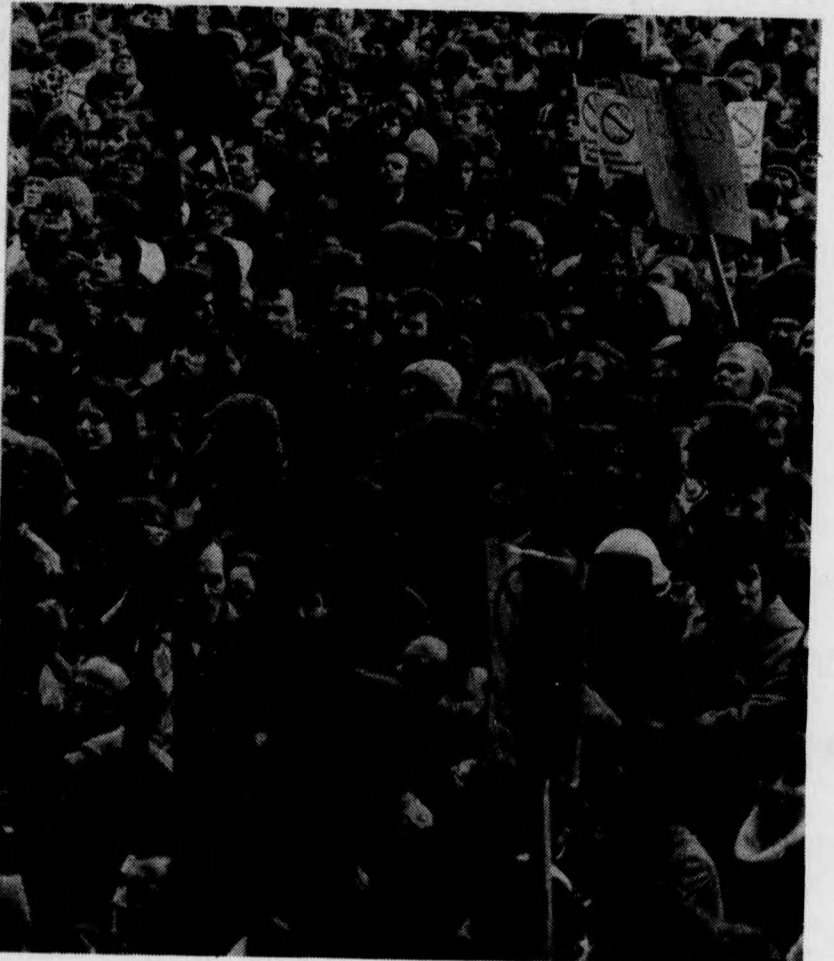

When fighting broke out November 15 during arguments on Zionism, lecturer Jeff Forest and three others were arrested.
Ted Mumford

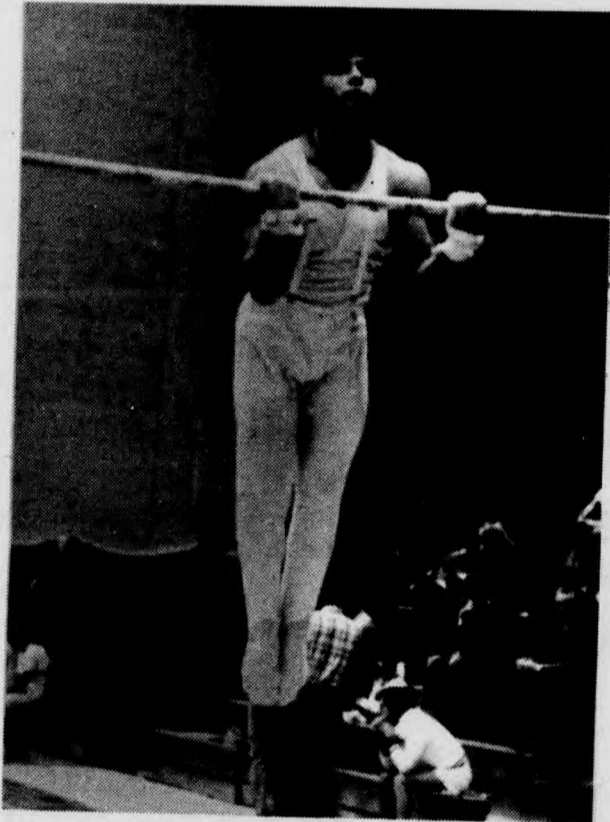

Lonnie Ramati helped make the men cagers a national threat for the first time, finishing third in Canada. Bruce Gates
Bruce Gates

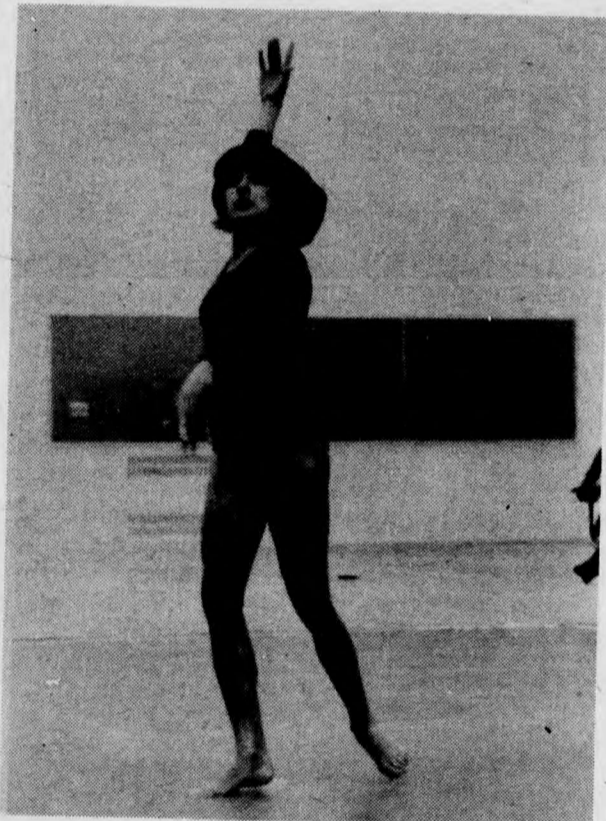

The CYSF triumvirate: President Paul Hayden (centre) and vice-presidents Gary Empey (left) and Dave Chodikoff (President-elect right).
Bryon Johnson

Thousands of students, staff and faculty from all over Ontario met to protest university cutbacks at Queen's Park March 16.
Geoff Hoave

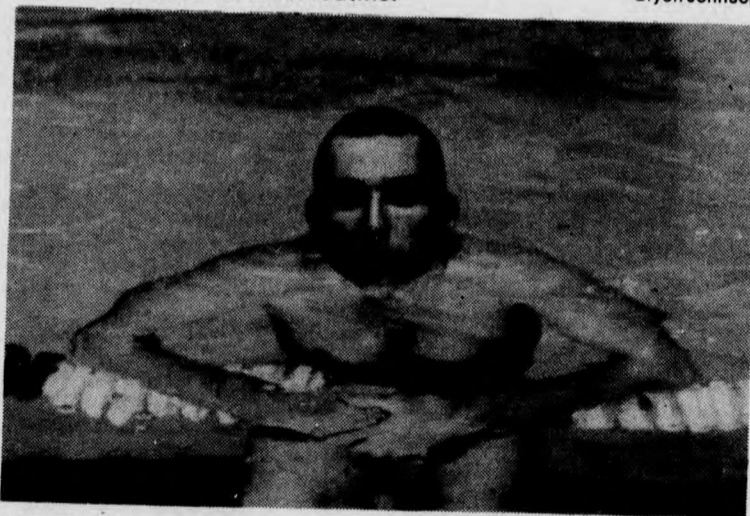

With performances by the likes of Dave Steeper, the men's gymnastics team took the national title for the seventh consecutive year.
Bryon Johnson

The women's gymnastics team is another powerhouse, which, depending on the outcome of a dispute, will finish second in Ontario, or first for the tenth consecutive year. Nancy McConnell is shown here in a floor routine.
Bryon Johnson

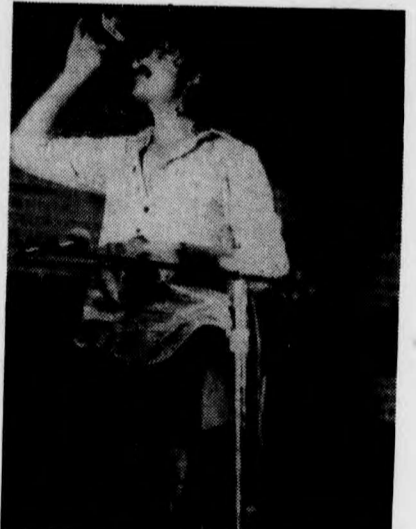

Under the guidance of artistic director Kate Lushington (left), York Cabaret was in full flight this year, mounting eight revues. To her left is Pam Mingo (Christmas Reclassified, Mixed Blessings).
Cynthia Rantoul

With the help of Olympian Gary MacDonald, the men's swim team was a national contender for the first time this year, finishing third in Canada.
Bryon Johnson
Peter Tildus

The soccer Yeomen won every game this year - the national champions. Mac Musaby (above) was national MVP.
Bryon Johnson

Burton Cummings made a surprise appearance at Founders in September. Here, he lubricates his vocal cords.
Ted Mumford

The Faculty of Fine Arts' Arts of March Festival included performances by jazz students like tenor saxophonist Jody Golick.
David Himbara

A team of visual arts students created sculptor Jack Gazan's massive earthwork York Palms on a campus field in October.
Paul Hurley

In October, York and U of T students collaborated for the first performance of the York Cycle in 400 years.
Peter Hadzipetros