

A hypnotist entertained Credit Valley actors

A crowd of 20,000 rose to give a standing ovation as Fred Fellows arrived at a pounding finish to his piano concerto.

Then this talented performer moved actress Nola Brown to tears with his rendition of Impossible Dream. But, alas, the roaring crowd was all in Fred's mind for he was under the influence of hypnotism.

All the fun and games took place at the cast party at Paul Feist's home following the last performance of Whose Afraid of Virginia Woolf?

Laurie Elion was the hypnotist for the evening but he was also the capable director of Virginia Woolf and club member thoroughly enjoyed an evening of fun and relaxation after working so hard at their splendid production.

TENNIS PARTY?

Mrs. J.A. Fooks entertained her tennis playing chums at a luncheon on Dec. 16. Conversation bounced animatedly from past tennis games to present indoor games but gave way increasingly to the excitement of a better than ever ski season coming up.

SENIOR CITIZENS

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Branch 582 entertained the Cooksville Senior Citizens at a Christmas dinner on Tuesday, Dec. 15.

Miss Eleanor Blake thanked the ladies for inviting the seniors and for the wonderful dinner.

Mrs. Flo Goddard then

drew the first ticket for the draw, and the quilt went to Mrs. Hilda Robinson of Kerwin Ave.

The radio, donated by the Royal Oak Television and Stereo of Dundas St. E. went to Tommy Wilcox of the Base Line.

An electric knife was donated by George Nelham (a senior) won by Miss Barbara Fullerton of Paisley, Ont.

The electric mixer, donated by Home and Rural went to Ron Sibbald of Arcade

After the draw, Mrs. Irene Wilson, program convener, introduced Miss Patsy Kelly who gave a wonderful performance of acrobatic dancing and baton twirling. Three selections of Christmas music were given by Jack Hetherington accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Rasquin, the seniors then all joined in singing a few carols.

Several door prizes were won by the seniors. Mrs. Wilson presented gifts to the three senior members of the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Elsie Hepton, Mrs. Winnie Miles and Mrs. Rose Woodall.
