Meet Paul Shakes, 16-year old defenceman with Dixie Beehives. He plays clever hockey from his position and also is used on the point on power-plays.

Paul Shakes leads Beehives to 5-3 win over North York

Despite an injury to hard driving Tony Mapstone which sent him to hospital midway of the second period, Dixie Beehives won out over North York Rangers 5-3 in a Metro junior B hockey game last Sun. night at Dixie Arena.

Mapstone was hooked from behind by Edgerton of North York just as he was to take a shot on goal on a breakaway rush. Mapstone fell heavily against the boards and was carried from the ice on a stretcher by trainer Al Bryant and teammate Vic Stanfield.

Bryant said, "We're not taking any chances. Mapstone will go to the hospital. There's no broken bones apparently but he might have a pinched nerve in his back." Mapstone was having trouble moving his fingers and feet.

SHAKES 'EM

North York opened the scoring but Beehive captain, Wayne Bowden, tied the game in short order.

Young Paul Shakes put the Bee's ahead to stay before the end of the first period assisted by Mapstone and Bob Goss. At 1:26 of the second stanza Shakes scored again, this time unassisted and it was 3-1 for Dixie.

Dave Street got one back for North York when they were a man short but lanky Glenn Campbell deflected the puck into the Ranger net at 15:25 to give Dixie a two-goal bulge again. Assists went to Paul Warden and John Stainton.

Ted Meech put North York into a 4-3 situation at 11:22 but at 15:30 Allan

Gordaneer nailed the clincher for Dixie deflecting

Bobby Thompson's hard drive from the blue line.
