Sent $40
over. 7th 1888

An artist of St John N.B. asked leave to place on exhibition, for his own benefit, in the Assembly Room of Acadia College, during the Anniversary exercises of last June, a fine portrait of yourself and one of Mr Ball.

Mr. Bill M. P.P. and Mr Cummings Esq of Truro purchased them and gave them to the College. This moved E.D. King Esq to ask the Governor to be permitted to procure a portrait of the late Judge Johnson, and hang it up in the College.
His request was of course
