

considerable tension in my own mind and I wrote to Lucile immediately on hearing.

252
253
I received a letter from Mr. Stirling, the lawyer, on Tuesday - dated August 31st - stating that he had received the consent of the Quebec Succession Policy Department and had forwarded it to the Montreal Trust Company and he expected to receive the transferred bonds in about ten days time.
He seemed to think the holiday time interfered with getting the matter attended to promptly - that is in Quebec.

as I have told you before, just knowing you, realizing I have the privilege of getting in touch with you at any time, that I may pour out my heart to you if I so desire - that is just wonderful and means more to me than I am capable of expressing.

You are, indeed, most kind and good!

Thank you so much for the trouble you took in finding out about the lawyer in Redstone through your friend, Mr. McDevitt.
The report he gave has eased