

Q. That would be before you went to work in the morning you were apprehended?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you intend to return if ever?

A. I intended to come back after the Christmas holidays.

Q. Why the Christmas holidays?

A. I wanted to spend Christmas with my family and my affairs would be o.k. My wife got a job just before I got picked.

Q. You think you would have come back after Christmas, possibly in January?

A. Yes, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

Questioned by the Court.

Q. Where - this place you went to in Winnipeg, is that where your wife was living?

A. Yes, sir, 387 Carlton Street.

Q. What is your given home address on your documents?

A. 387 Carlton Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Q. Where did you continue to reside?

A. 387 Carlton Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Q. Under what name did you go all the time?

A. My own name, sir.

Q. How is it that part of your children are being taken care of by your mother?

A. I lost my first wife in May, 1944. We had three children and my children and I boarded at my mothers place until I got married again and during that time my father got killed and when I joined the army she asked me to leave my children there so I would not take the children away from her as they were company for her.

Q. What is your medical category? Do you know?

A. A-1, sir.

Q. You said something about your wife working. Has she been working right along?

A. No, sir, she just started last month, sir.
