EXPORT BUTTER AND CHEESE EXPORT BUTTER AND CHEESE Montreal. Startarday, May 8th, 1990-The export demand for cheese this week was Orders came in for more than two or three times the quantity available, and an advance in prices inmediately resulted. The opening markets of the week on day, 115% and 115% were the ruling prices paid, whilst on Thursday and Friday the great bulk of the cheese in the country was sold at prices ranging from of nearly one cent a b from the previous 12c to 122c a lb. representing an advance of nearly one cent a lb. from the previous week. It looks now as if the advance has been overdone, as the response to the the advance in prices here has been very small today. It is very difficult to see how such high prices can be maintained in the face of the steadily increasing receipts that we may expect from now on. The demant this week was for
