Politeness in the Home

"John's Wife," Durham Co., Ont.

Any one who has visited our public schools or taken notice of groups of children has surely been surprised at the general lack of politeness displayed. This failing is not true of all, but I believe it is the general rule.

As a teacher in country schools I had ample chance to observe conditions and found that four out of every five rude children are so through ignorance, not choice. How have these conditions been brought about? Why do not our little ones know what are the requirements of politeness? I fear the trouble lies largely in the home training.

Take time for training. We farmers' wives are busy people. We can find employment for every minute of every hour of the day. Sometimes it seems as if we had all our time employed in keeping our children clean and well fed, and we are quite too busy to give elaborate social instruction. But are we doing right? Will our children in after years look back and feel that we have done our duty? Let us be mothers and housekeepers before housekeepers. Our houses will survive a little neglect, but our children will always bear its mark.

The question arises, how can we teach our little ones to treat strangers politely? We cannot always be with them. The secret lies, I believe, in our insisting upon every member of our family treating every other member with consideration. What, in comparison with our home relations, is our intercourse with strangers? Truly the root of the matter is to have our family kind and considerate at home. Then and then only will we be polite abroad.

Green Tomato Soup.—Four green tomatoes and one large onion sliced. Cover with salted water and cook until the tomatoes are done. When ready to serve add one cupful of milk and two cupfuls of sweet cream. Serve with crackers or bread slices.

Pear Chips.—Wipe eight pounds of pears, remove stems, quarter and core. Then cut in small pieces. Put in sieve pan, add four pounds of sugar and one-fourth pound of Canton ginger, cover and let stand over night. In the morning add four lemons cut in small pieces. Bring to boiling point and let simmer three hours.

Green Tomato Pickles.—Slice one peck of tomatoes into a jar, sprinkle a little salt over each layer; let them stand 24 hours, drain off the liquor; put tomatoes into a kettle with a teaspoonful of each of the following spices: Ground ginger, allspice, cloves, mace, cinnamon, a teaspoon of scraped horse radish, 12 small or three large red peppers, three onions, a cupful of brown sugar. Cover all with vinegar and boil slowly four hours.

Mayonnaise Dressing.—One cup of vinegar, two scant teaspoonfuls mustard, two tablespoonfuls sugar, one-half teaspoonful salt, two teaspoonfuls butter, four tablespoonfuls water, yolk of four eggs well beaten. Stir all together with egg beater, then put on the stove and cook a few minutes, stirring until thick. Put away in a jar until ready to use. When ready to use, thin with sour or sweet cream and pour over salad.
