Sheep—Ewes, $3.50 to $4; rams, $2.50 to $2.75; lambs, $5.50 to $6 per cwt. Hogs—Packers are quoting $7.75, fed and watered, and $7.50, f. o. b. cars.

REVIEW OF LAST WEEK'S MARKET.

Receipts of live stock at the City and Union Stock-yards last week were fairly large, the total being as follows:

	City.	Union.	Total.
Cars	249	146	395
Cattle	3,564	1,947	5,511
Hogs	5,506	1,659	7,165
Sheep	5,343	2,823	8,166
Calves	329	103	432
Horses	—	105	105

The quality of fat cattle generally was not as good, those offered at the Union yards not being up to the usual standard, while at the City yards there were few outside of the common to medium classes. Trade at the Union yards for exporters was never better all year, when quality is considered, all offerings being readily taken at an advance of 40 cents per cwt. in some instances.

Exporters.—Export steers sold from $5 to $6.15 per cwt.; export heifers, $5 to $5.30; export bulls, $4 to $5 per cwt.

Butchers.—Prime picked lots of butchers' were worth from $5.25 to $5.30, but nearly all of this class were bought for export, the local dealers not being able to pay the prices that the export dealers put up. Loads of good butchers' sold at $5 to $5.25 and $5.30; medium, $4.50 to $4.75; common, $3.75 to $4.25; cows, $2.25 to $4.40.

Stockers and Feeders.—The heavier class of steers of good quality was firm, while the light, common kind, was easier. Best steers, 900 to 1,050 lbs., were selling from $4 to $4.50, and, in some instances, as high as $4.75 was paid for extra-quality steers, but the general run was from $4 to $4.30 and $4.40 per cwt.; steers, 800 to 900 lbs. each, sold at $3.50 to $3.85; good-quality stockers, 500 to 700 lbs. each, sold at $2.75 to $3.25; common stockers, $2 to $2.25 per cwt.

Milkers and Springers.—The market for springers of good quality was very strong, in fact, better than for some time; several buyers from Montreal and Lachine Rapids were on the market, besides the local dealers, and buyers for several dairies caused prices to be firmer. Napoleon Deziel bought three carloads for the Montreal market. Prices ranged from $35 to $68 each. Fred Rowntree, of Weston, sold a selected load, to go to Lachine Rapids, at $58 each.

Veal Calves.—The market for veal calves has been strong for some time, and was not any easier this last week. Prices ranged from $3 to $7 per cwt., the bulk going at $5.50 to $6.50 per cwt.

Sheep and lambs.—There has been more activity on the sheep-and-lamb market, especially at the Union yards, where the Swift Dressed Beef Co. have placed a permanent buyer. The receipts have more than doubled at these yards in sheep and lambs, as well as in cattle. Prices were firmer, export ewes selling at $3.75 to $3.90, and $4; rams, $2.75 to $3 per cwt. in all cases; lambs sold from $5.80 to $5.90.

Hogs.—The packers started out to try to reduce the prices for hogs from $8.25 to $7.85, or 40c. per cwt., but farmers refused to stand for it. The general price for selects, fed and watered at the market, was $8, and $7.75, f. o. b. cars at country points.

Horses.—Trade at the Union Horse Exchange was better last week than at any time since last spring. The principal demand was from the lumber and railway companies. At the regular auction sales held on Monday and Wednesday, about 150 horses changed hands, the bulk of which were heavy drafters, weighing from 1,450 pounds to 1,700 pounds each, the quality of many of them being seldom equalled at any sale stables. Manager Smith reports prices as follows: Heavy drafters, $180 to $220; general-purpose, $140 to $175; expressers, $150 to $200; drivers, $100 to $160; serviceably sound, $35 to $70 each.

The bulk of the offerings on the local market consisted of Manitoba domestic and Northwest ranch cattle, these having arrived in very good condition. A few very choice cattle sold at 5½c. per lb. The bulk of the offerings, however, sold at 4½c. to 5c. per lb., this being for good stock.
