

mon that can be driven out. Healthy companionship, plenty of laughter, good long walks in sunshine, and work, will drive out the wicked little imp—discontent—and make you the happy, healthy, hopeful girl that you ought to be. Just form a band against self-analysis, against the inclination to consider what every inflection of the voice and every look of the eye means, and you will be surprised to discover how much of good there is in the world, and how little, comparatively, of that which is bad.

Correct.

A Congo native who has been taught to read and write, has just sent a letter, his first, to the Archbishop of Canterbury. It is as follows: "Great and Good Chief of the tribe of Christ, greeting: The humblest of your servants kisses the hem of your garment, and begs you to send to his fellow-servants more Gospel and less rum. In the bonds of Christ, Ugalla."

Love in the Home Life.

We ought not to fear to speak our love at home. We should get all the tenderness possible into the daily household life. We should make the morning good-byes, as we part at the breakfast-table, kindly enough for final farewells. Many go out in the morning who never come home at night; therefore we should part, even for a few hours, with kind words, with a lingering pressure of the hand, lest we may never look again into each other's eyes. Tenderness in the home is not a childish weakness; it is one that should be indulged in and cultivated, for it will bring the sweetest returns.

Did you Ever Think, my Dear.

That a kind word put out at interest brings back an enormous percentage of love and appreciation?

That though a loving thought may not seem to be appreciated, it has yet made you better and braver because of it?

That the little acts of kindness and thoughtfulness day by day, are really greater than one immense act of goodness shown once a year?

That to be always polite to the people at home is not only more ladylike, but more refined than having "company manners"?

That to learn to talk pleasantly about nothing in particular is a great art, and prevents you saying things you may regret?

That to judge anybody by their personal appearance stamps you as not only ignorant, but vulgar?

That to talk, and talk, and talk about yourself and your belongings, is very tiresome to the people who listen?

That to be witty (?) at the expense of somebody else is positive cruelty many times?

That personalities are not always interesting, and very often offensive?

That the ability to keep a friend is very much greater than required to gain one?

That if women would allow their friends to enjoy themselves in their own way there would be fewer stumbling blocks in life?

That if the girls all over the world were to form societies of one, each being her own president and house committee and entertainment committee and secretary and treasurer, and make kind words the currency, considerate actions the social functions, and love the great aim, that the whole world would be sweeter and purer for it? Just form one society where you are, and see what a great success it will be. Ladies' Home Journal.

Words of Our Lord Jesus.

Once when the great Apostle, St. Paul, was preaching a sermon, he said to the people, "Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

This is what we ought all of us to do, to remember Jesus' Words! Now, let us talk a little about these Words. Jesus says it is better to give to others, than to get anything yourself. Do you know how very true that is? Did you ever try it?

Blessed means happy. It makes you more happy in your heart to give than it does to receive from others yourself.

Jesus wants you to be glad and happy; and so He tells you how you may be so.

I think, children, there is nothing in the world which makes us happier than giving something to some one; and especially if it is a gift that has cost us something, or if it is something which we would like to keep for ourselves.

Just try it during this Lent, and see how glad your hearts will be. Go without something which you would like to buy for yourself, and give the money to some poor person, or put it in your missionary box. Do it often, and when Easter comes, I think you will know how true the dear Lord's words are.

Learn to Forgive.

Learn how to forgive. Do not carry an unforgiving spirit with you through all your life; it will hurt you more than anything else. It will destroy the happiness of many around you, yet its chief feeding ground will be found in your heart. You hate your neighbor. Yonder is his dwelling, one hundred and fifty yards away. Suppose you pass by a wood fire, and as you pass you pluck a half-consumed brand from it, flaming and gleaming, and thrusting it under your garment to hide it, you start for your neighbor's dwelling to burn it. Who gets the worst of it? You find your garments on fire and your own flesh burned before you can harm your neighbor. So is he who carries an unforgiving spirit in his bosom. It stings his own soul like an adder shut up there. I know of some who call themselves Christians, who are miserable because of their own revengefulness. Forgive your enemies, and get down on your knees and pray for them, and salvation will come into your own soul like a flood. "Father forgive them." Sweet prayer and blessed example.
