ARM BROKEN.

Mrs. McMillan, of Dundas St. Terrace Hill, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm. Her many friends will wish her a speedy recovery.

MASONRY HERE

Brant Lodge, No. 45, A.F. & A.M. are entertaining Hamilton brethren this evening in their rooms in the Temple Building. The Hamilton members are putting on a pageant, "The Flagg of the Allies," and will be tendered a banquet.

WATER RATES

Yesterday afternoon was the busiest day yet for the payment of water rates, a large number of people visiting the office of the city treasurer. This morning, however, the crowd was considerably smaller. This year the rates are coming in rather slower than in former years.

BACK TO DUTY.

Lieut. Flowerday returned this morning to duty with the 215th battalion, after being laid up for some weeks off and on throughout the winter months, with an attack of the grippe. He is not fully recovered as yet, but expects to be around within a few days.

HAVE PASSED.

Lieut. W. G. Flowerday, C.S.M., J. C. Cook, Corps, H. McClelland and A. G. Wyllie, and Privates H. Barnett and H. Barlow have passed the required examinations at the District School of Bombing held at Toronto, in February. Notifications of the results of the examinations were just received at the armouries yesterday.

THE JEWS AND THE WAR.

At Zion Church Young Peoples Guild last night Rev. W. E. Gordon addressed the members on "The Jew and the Present War". Mr. Gordon gave some very interesting facts regarding the part taken by the Jewish people in the great struggle. Miss E. Senn sang in her usual brilliant manner and was greatly appreciated. Mr. George Traill, head of the mission committee, made a very efficient chairman.

ST. ANDREW'S Y. P. G.

The regular meeting of the St. Andrew's Young Peoples' Guild was held last evening, with the vice-president, Mr. Clark Johnston, in the chair. After the business of the evening had been attended to, two splendid addresses on the lives of Frances Willard and Joan of Arc were given by Miss Mabel Cook and Mrs. C. Johnston.

WANT CHECK BACK.

Mickle, Drymont and Son, local lumber merchants, have written the City Clerk asking for the return of their check for $50 which was sent some time ago, accompanying a tender to supply the city with lumber.

TREASURER'S DISBURSEMENTS

The disbursements of the city treasurer, A. K. Bunnell through the various departments of city administration for the month ending March 13th, were $157.52, divided as follows: Fire and light committee $34.98; Board of Works 65 cents; Buildings and Grounds committee $51.75; Finance Committee $70.14.

LAND CULTIVATION

Mr. Frederick E. Robson of Toronto who, for the past two years has been actively engaged in the development of vacant lot and back-gardening there, has written Mayor Bowby enclosing a copy of a report showing the work accomplished there. Mr. Robson in lecturing in the near future at Western Ontario towns on the subject of the production of vegetables and wishes to know what is being done along that line in this city.

FARM FAIR

The chairman of the Industrial Committee of the city council of Port Arthur has written city clerk H. F. Leonard stating that the two cities of Port William and Port Arthur are to hold a Farm Fair this year lasting two days, and further states that the sum of $1,000 has been set aside to cover expenses. If Brantford has any undertaking of this nature would like the particulars of management and operations forwarded to him.

NO PARADE

No parade of the Dufferin Rifles was held last evening, the men already enrolled in the regiment being merely informally invited to visit the armories and to bring a friend with them for the purpose of obtaining more recruits. A goodly number were in attendance. Active work with drilling and training of the regiment will commence very shortly, and will not be delayed until the departure of the 215th as has sometimes been thought.

SURPRISE PARTY

A crowd of happy young people last night took possession of the home of Miss Gertrude Bicknell, Murray Street, and surprised her on the occasion of her leaving the firm of J. M. Young and Company. Miss Bicknell was presented with a pearl sunburst as a token of the friendship which she has enjoyed with her fellow workers while there. Progressive games were played, Miss Mildred Beatty being successful in capturing the lady's first award, while Mr. Victor Hadden won the gentleman's first prize. The consolation awards went to Mr. Jack Grant and Miss Lucy Clark. After indulging in dancing, the gathering broke up at a late hour.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS

The progressive spirit that has always characterized the members of St. Jude's Anglican church, is again being demonstrated in the alterations that are now being made to one of the oldest edifices of its kind in the city. The entire interior is being repainted, redecorated, and rewired, and when the work is completed, the church will be one of the most beautiful in the city. Work was commenced yesterday, and until it is completed, the services will be held in the school room. Recent improvements have also been made in the school room, which has been equipped with an excellent lantern, and screen, that will prove of inestimable value in entertainments and concerts.

VETERAN'S ASSOCIATION.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the returned soldiers of the city, held in the Y.M.C.A. it was decided to form a local branch of the Great War Veterans' Association. Active plans were formed, committees appointed and a general policy discussed. A nominating committee was formed and the following officers elected: Commander, G. B. Broomfield; Junior Commander, Harry Smith; Sergeant at Arms, Robinson; Paymaster, L. D. Watson; Adjutant, C. E. Jenkins. An executive committee composed of Messrs. H. Cory, F. Standridge, J. Orr and G. Harper was also elected. It was decided to hold the conference to be held in Toronto on Monday and Tuesday, March 19th and 20th, and G. W. Broomfield, and Sgt. R. F. Wakeling were detailed to attend. It is probable that Capt. Jenkins will also attend the conference. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and the necessary by-laws for the organization, and another meeting will be held on Saturday night in the Y.M.C.A. when further plans will be discussed.

Obituary

The Courier regrets to record the demise of Emma J. Waterous, beloved wife of Mr. William Agnew. The deceased was the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Waterous, was born in this city and spent her early girlhood days here when by her bright and engaging manners she formed a number of lasting friendships. Upon her marriage to Mr. Agnew, a prominent wholesale dry goods man in Montreal, she removed to that city but the climate there latterly proving too severe for both of them, they moved to Victoria where they had resided for some time.

Mr. C. H. Waterous recently went there on a farewell visit when it was realized that her illness was of a fatal nature. Her only son, Capt. Augustus Agnew was killed not long ago during the fighting in France, and in addition to the sorrowing husband she leaves one daughter, Kathleen. The brothers surviving are Messrs. Julius, Charles H. and David of this city and Frank of St. Paul, Minn.

BANDSMEN FOR DUFFS

Large Number Last Evening Volunteered to Join the 38th

The spirit of enthusiasm prevailed at the reorganization meeting of the Dufferin Rifles Band held last evening in the Conservatory of Music. A large number of local bandmen and musicians of all classes were present, and signified their willingness to join the regiment in the capacity of bandmen. At the close of the meeting, refreshments were very kindly served by the musicians by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Andrews of the Conservatory. The instruments for the band are expected from Toronto almost daily now, and in the meantime the work of re-organization will be proceeded with without delay.

CHIEF BRANT TO BE COMMEMORATED

History of Famous Chief-tain in Work on North American Indians

Another of Brant county's famous Indian sons, who will always be associated with the history of the county—Brant, the Indian chief—is to be further commemorated. Edward W. Brayley, of Dorchester, Massachusetts, is engaged at present in a work on the monuments that have been erected to North American Indians, and has written Librarian E. D. Henwood, asking for a photo of the monument that stands in Victoria Park, accompanied by a description of the
